I Am Music

I am Music, most ancient of the arts. I am more than ancient; I am eternal. Even before life commenced upon this earth, I was here—in the winds and the waves. When the first trees and flowers and grasses appeared, I was among them. And when Man came, I at once became the most delicate, most subtle, and most powerful medium for the expression of Man's emotions. When men were little better than beasts, I influenced them for their good. In all ages I have inspired men with hope, kindled their love, given a voice to their joys, cheered them on to valorous deeds, and soothed them in times of despair. I have played a great part in the drama of Life, whose end purpose is the complete perfection of man's nature. Through my influence human nature has been uplifted, sweetened and refined. With the aid of men, I have become a Fine Art. From Tubalcain to Thomas Edison a long line of the brightest minds have devoted themselves to the perfection of instruments through which men may utilize my powers and enjoy my charms. I have myriads of voices and instruments. I am in the hearts of all men and on their tongues, in all lands and among all peoples; the ignorant and unlettered know me, not less than the rich and learned. For I speak to all men, in a language that all understand. Even the deaf hear me, if they but listen to the voices of their own souls. I am the food of love. I have taught men gentleness and peace; and I have led them onward to heroic deeds. I comfort the lonely, and I harmonize the discord of crowds. I am a necessary luxury to all men. I am MUSIC.

Dedication

Notre Dame's congenial, sincere athletic director, Brother Robert, SC, this year celebrates twenty-five years of religious life. In his honor, therefore, is the 1961 Crusader respectfully dedicated.

The likable senior home room teacher has devoted seven years to the arduous task of creating a name and place for Notre Dame students and athletes. As a model religious, he has won the hearts of countless Crusaders by his good example.

Brother Robert heads the technical drawing department where, under fine tutelage, future draftsmen are steeped in the fundamentals of engineering. An artist himself with brush and pen, his creations have ranged from award-winning yearbooks to elaborate school production sets.

Brother Robert, SC

PASTORAL SHEPHERD OF THE WORCESTER DIOCESE

His Excellency the Most Reverend Bernard J. Flanagan, JCD, DD.

The new shepherd of souls in the Worcester Diocese, in his first full year as pastoral leader, has demonstrated both apostolic zeal and a keen interest in the intellectual pursuits of youth. The graduating class of 1961 extends heartfelt gratitude and promise continued obedience and cooperation in post-graduate life.

LEADER OF NEW ENGLAND PROVINCE

Rev. Brother George Aime, SC Provincial Superior

On Reverend Brother George Aime, SC, provincial superior of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart, rests the responsibility of yearly assignments for ND's faculty. Residing at the province's motherhouse at Cor Jesu Terrace in Harrisville, R. I., he maintains direct contact with the faculty and school through personal visitations during the scholastic year.

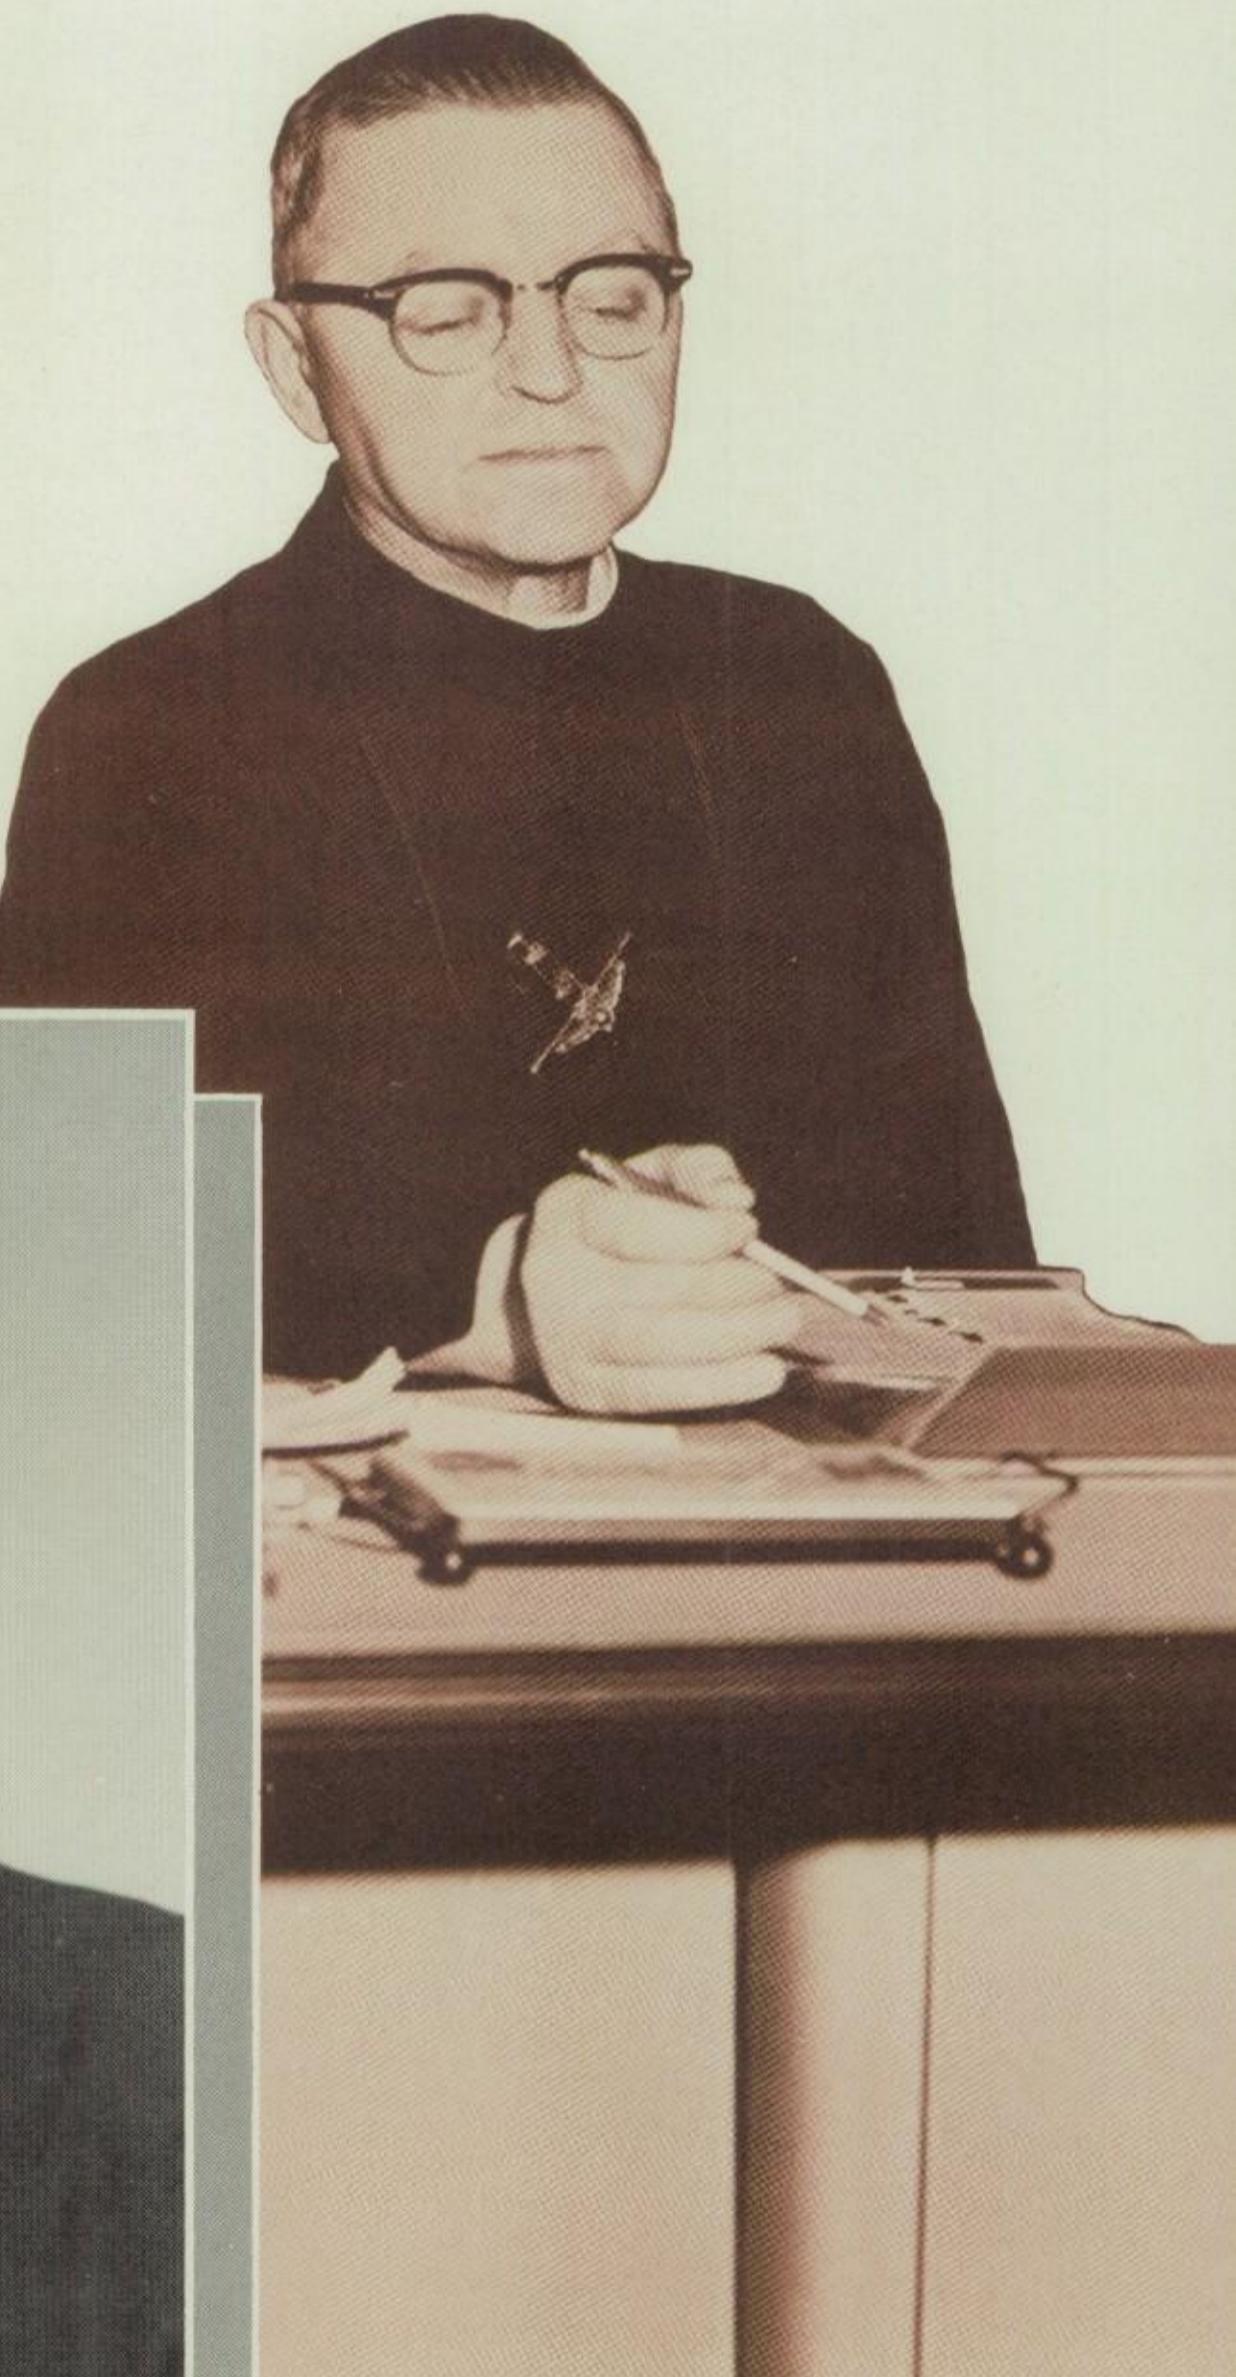

ENLIGHTENED GUIDE OF CRUSADERS

Rev. J. Charles Gendreau Chaplain

Notre Dame's devoted chaplain and Immaculate Conception curate has spread the light of truth to numberless Crusaders in the past and continues to guide the spiritual destinies of every God-seeking soul. His unflagging zeal and his knowledge of the American youth make him an invaluable guide to those who seek his counsel and wisdom.

BROTHER OLIVER, SC PRINCIPAL

DEDICATED COUNSELOR OF MODERN YOUTH

BROTHER OLIVER, SC,
Principal

For the past scholastic year, Notre Dame has been bolstered by the dedicated leadership of a highly esteemed organizer and educator, Brother Oliver, SC.

His thirty-five years of teaching experience have rendered him more than capable in the arduous task of character development in both moral and academic fields. A man of conviction, he has made Notre Dame a veritable "Hall of Learning."

FACULTY

To present a symphony—an elaborate instrumental composition in sonata form for a full orchestra—requires scores of instrumentalists who, as the poet says, can touch their lyre to ecstasy. Likewise, in the complex educational unit called the high school, men, learned in the arts and sciences, incorporate themselves into a faculty. Their avowed purpose is the greatest of all arts—education, whose primary aim is to establish harmony between the Creator and the intelligent creature through knowledge and obedience. The individual teachers, in their different classes and activities, achieve this whole, harmonious development of the student's physical, intellectual, and moral nature.

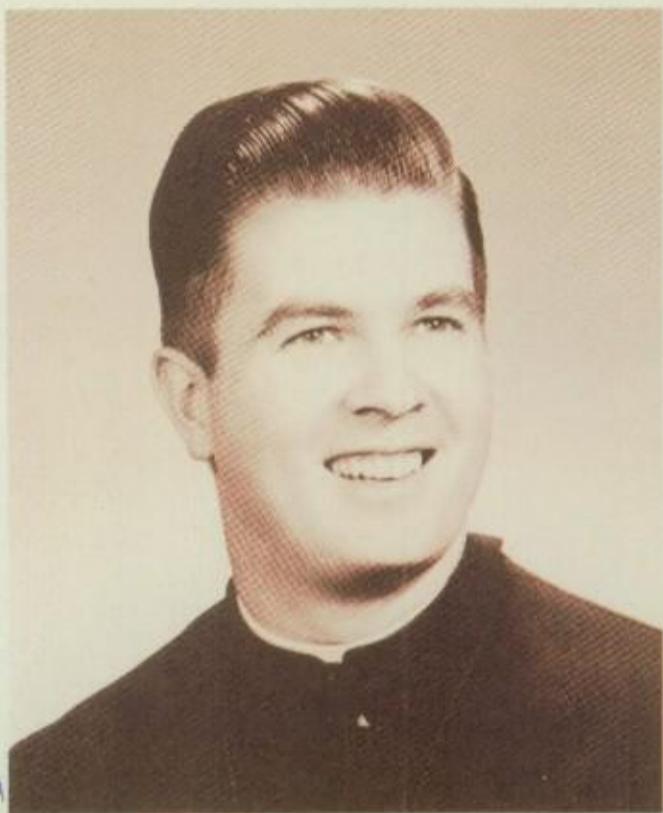

ADMINISTRATION

Brother Oliver, SC, Principal
Brother Robert, SC, Assistant Principal
Brother Armand, SC, Counselor

BROTHER ALPHONSE, SC.

Prep Life and publicity chief, he saw his monthly publication achieve an All-Catholic rating last year. Senior English teacher and school librarian, he stresses reading range and depth. He is moderator of the diamond sport in the spring.

BROTHER BERNARD, SC.

Photographic skill and an artistic sense for eye-appealing page designs made him the likeable choice to succeed as Crusader yearbook moderator. An avid interest in the physical sciences gives range to his biology classes.

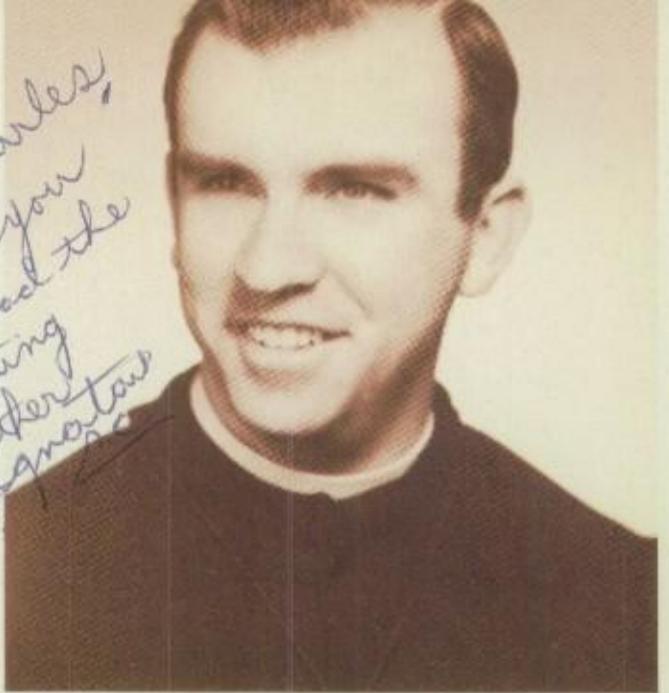

Moderators of the school's two All-Catholic publications, Prep Life and the Crusader, Brother Alphonse, SC, and Brother Bernard, SC, examine a negative in the new photo room.

BROTHER NICHOLAS, SC.

The gift of true artistry in presenting the liturgy of Mother Church in greater relief and color makes the tall Vermonter an invaluable sacristan. English graduate, he serves his classes and Prep Life with achievement.

BROTHER IGNATIUS, SC.

A newcomer to the faculty, his teaching poise and mastery of English have greatly enhanced the language department. He devoted time and energy as Prep Life assistant and freshman moderator of the Confraternity of the Sacred Heart,

Picture cropping and layout pasting engross attention of Brother Ignatius, SC, and Brother Nicholas, SC, newspaper assistants.

BROTHER GILES, SC.

Brother Giles
Talented producer of the annual smash hit minstrel shows, the Glee Club director developed unusual range and power in his seventy choraliens this year. The experienced chemistry teacher also displays zeal in his senior and alumni sodality programs.

BROTHER ALBAN, SC.

The faculty's tallest teacher contributes importantly to many school activities with his varied talents. Artist of note, he designed last fall's "Musical Minstrel" scenes. He also devotes religious attention to his sophomore confraternity.

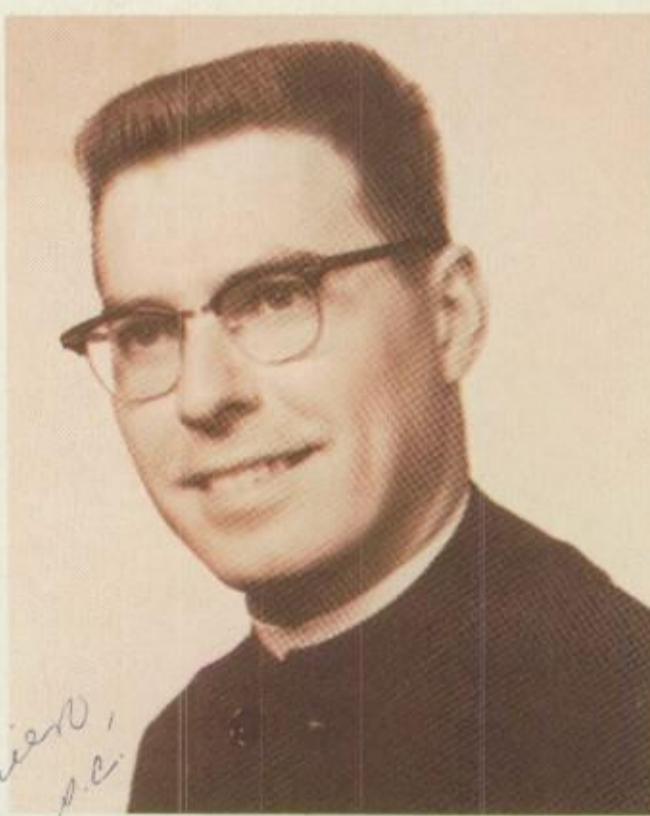

Brother Alban, SC, confers with Brother Giles, SC, on the selection of a hit number for the annual minstrel show.

BROTHER ARMAND, SC.

Founding faculty member nine years ago, the veteran senior math and history teacher has assumed the leadership of the forensic club. Interested in the lay apostolate, he was appointed CCD instructor by His Excellency Bishop Flanagan.

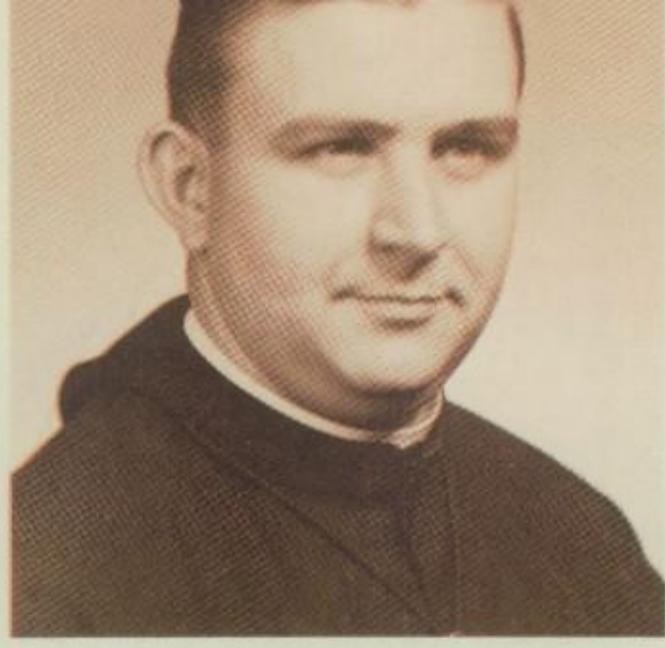

Bro. Armand, SC
BROTHER DAMIAN, SC.

High classroom standards bring great results to the sophomore teacher's English and Latin periods. Assistant debate moderator, his young charges have displayed good logic and correct delivery.

Compiling a point file for the national debate office in Ripon, Wisconsin, are Brother Armand, SC, varsity moderator, and Brother Damian, SC, freshman director.

BROTHER GILBERT, SC.

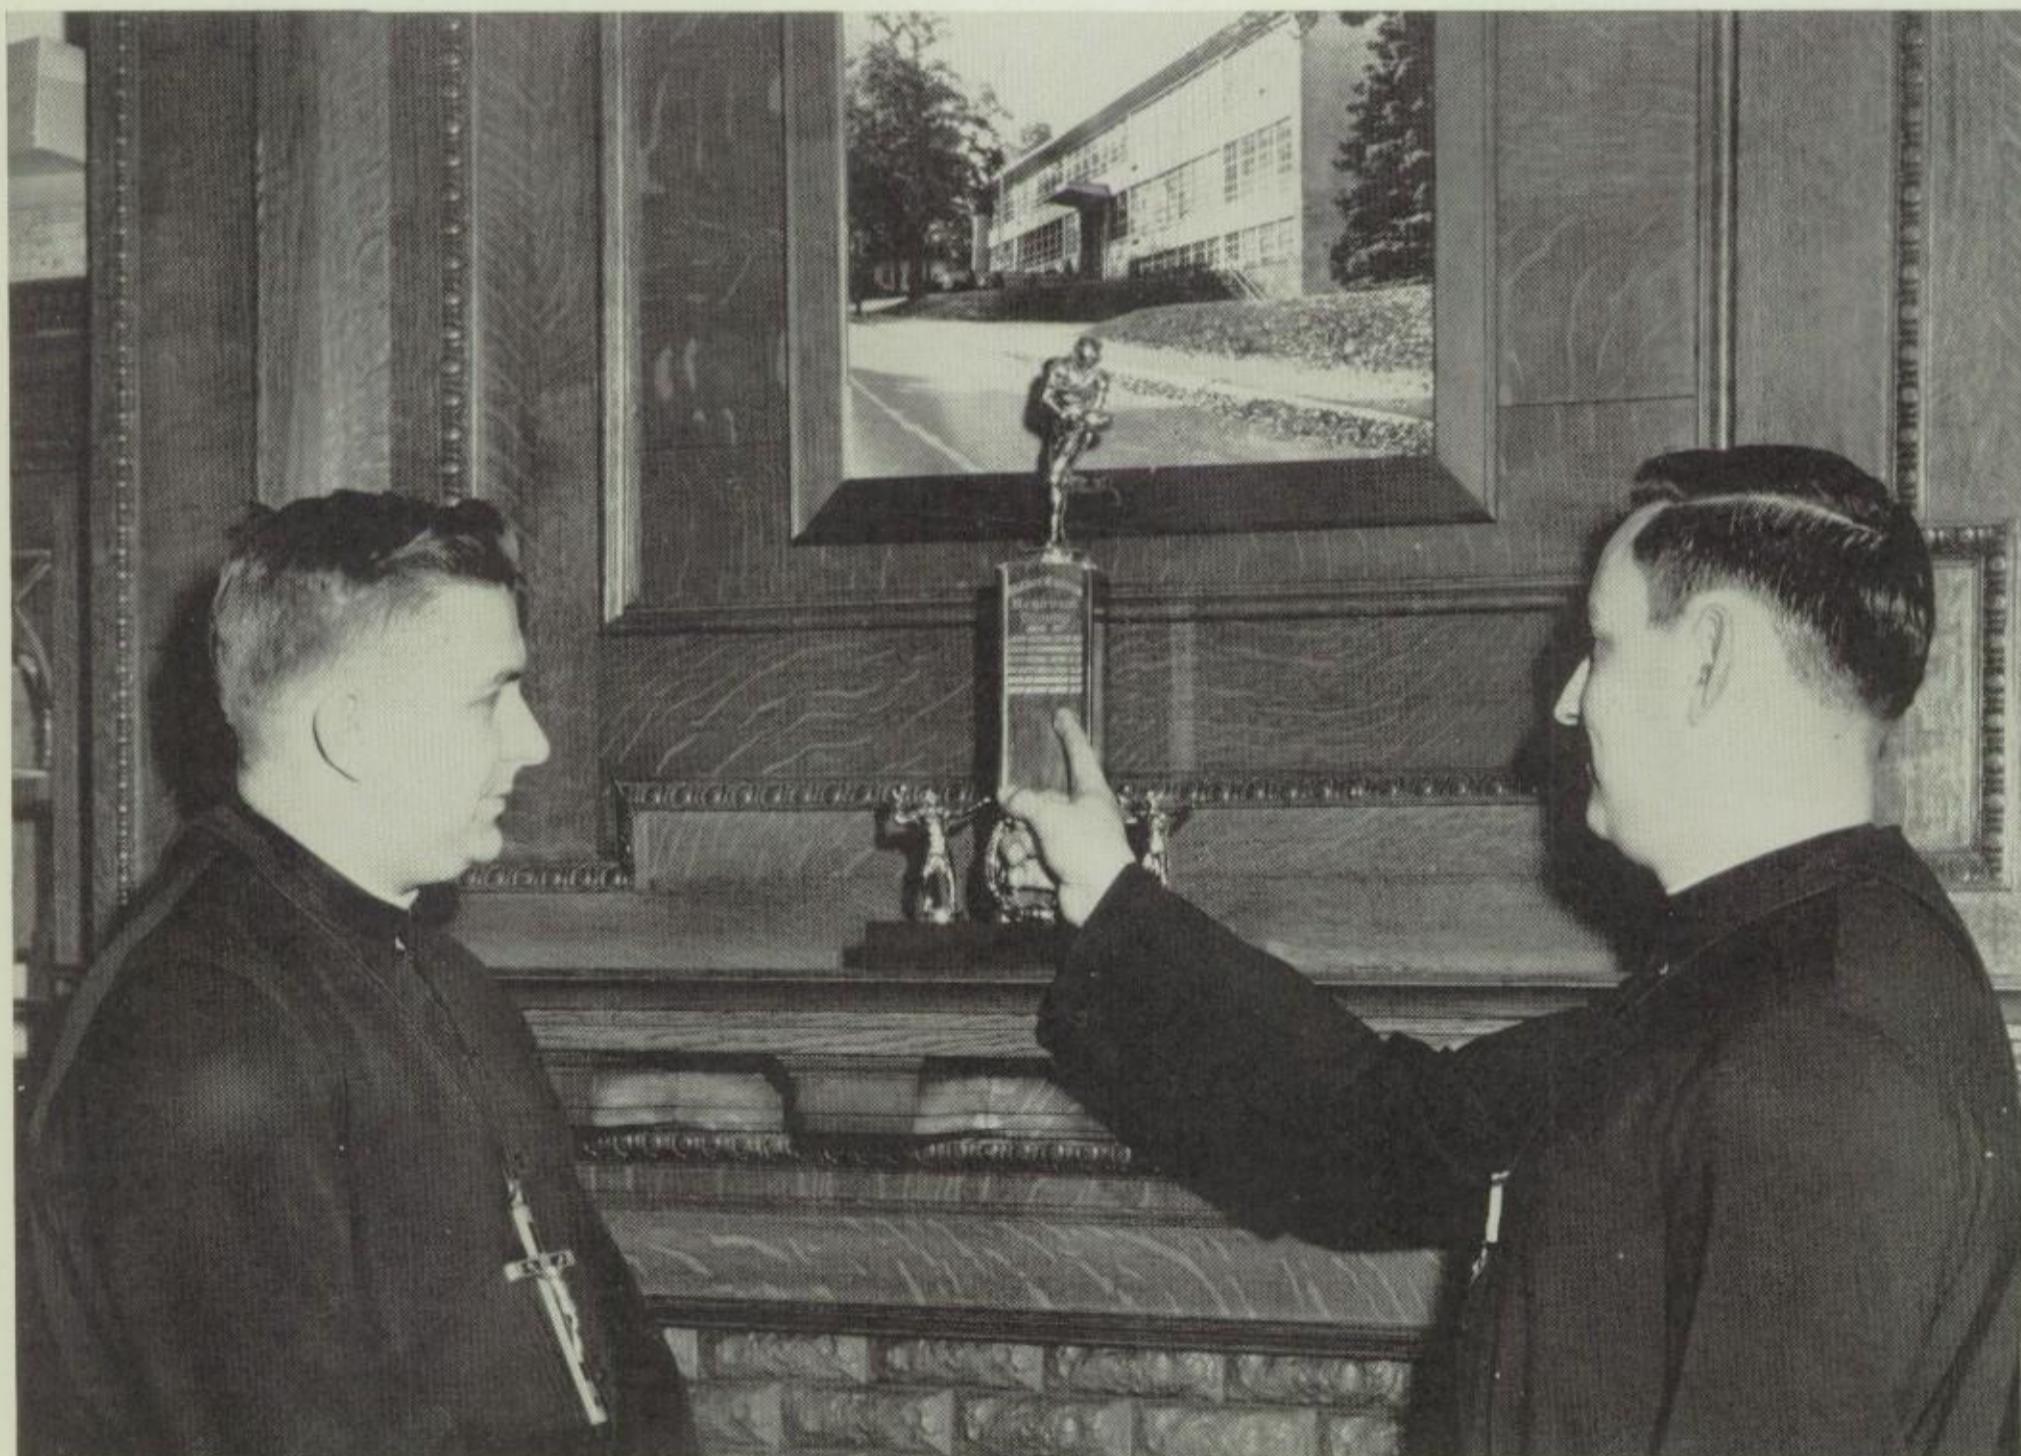

Transferring from Mount Saint Charles, the jovial history graduate greatly bolstered the department of social sciences. Avid sportsman and competitor, his selfless devotion in varsity football was singled out by the coaches.

Brother Gilbert SC

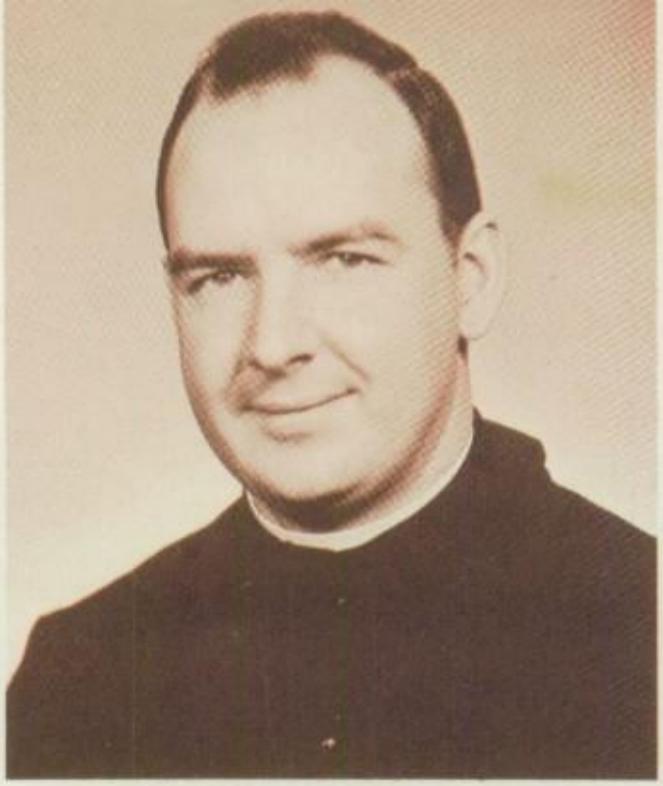

BROTHER GABRIEL, SC.

Possessing unusual ability in difficult math, his teaching schedule is mostly in that department. Director of the annual science fair, he directs hundreds of students in producing exhibits of great scientific merit. He was football moderator in the fall.

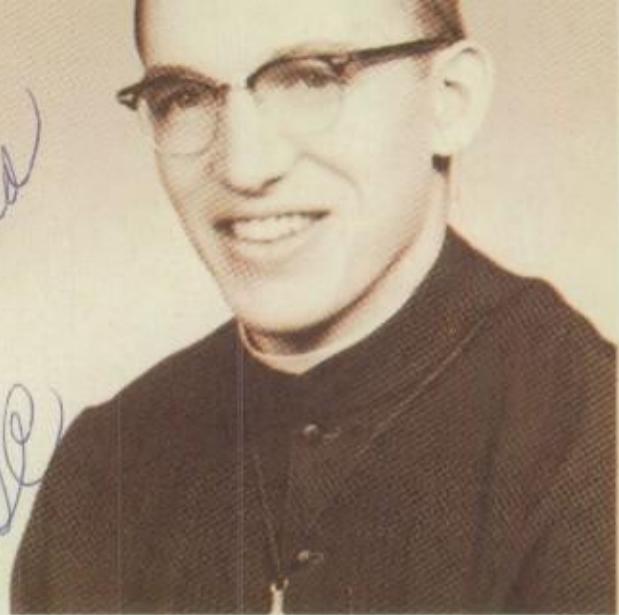

Moderators of the Blue and White's city Catholic championship team in football, Brother Gilbert, SC, and Brother Gabriel, SC, beam at the 1960 engraving on the Father Michael J. Curran trophy.

BROTHER MARK, SC.

Indefatigable devotion to a bundle of school causes and activities earmarks the new physics teacher's contribution to Notre Dame school life. Equipment manager and hoop moderator, he is counsellor and friend to every athlete.

Brother Mark, s.c.

BROTHER AUGUSTINE, SC.

In his first full year at Notre Dame, the lanky, frosh teacher has demonstrated subject knowledge and classroom science. He guided the school artists in depicting the Crusader's "Sound of Music" theme. During the hoop season he was freshman moderator.

I remember Charlee (the world looks) brighter behind a smile from Augustine

Hoop moderators Brother Augustine, SC, and Brother Mark, SC, uncover surprising statistics about hardwood performers in the athletes' file.

G. Ernest
BROTHER GEORGE-ERNEST, SC.

Skilled administrator of athletic finances, the energetic math and physics teacher also organizes the popular monthly hops at the school.

B. Joseph
BROTHER JOSEPH, SC.

A welcomed addition to the school's underclassmen math programs, he stimulated interest and progress in his classes. With his sports enthusiasm and fine carpentry, he lent valuable assistance to athletic and entertainment programs.

Treasurer of the school's athletic finances, Brother George-Ernest, SC, punches a student's activity card before a hoop contest.

Brother Joseph, SC, freshman math teacher, brings the solution of a difficult algebra problem into clearer focus on his pocket slide rule.

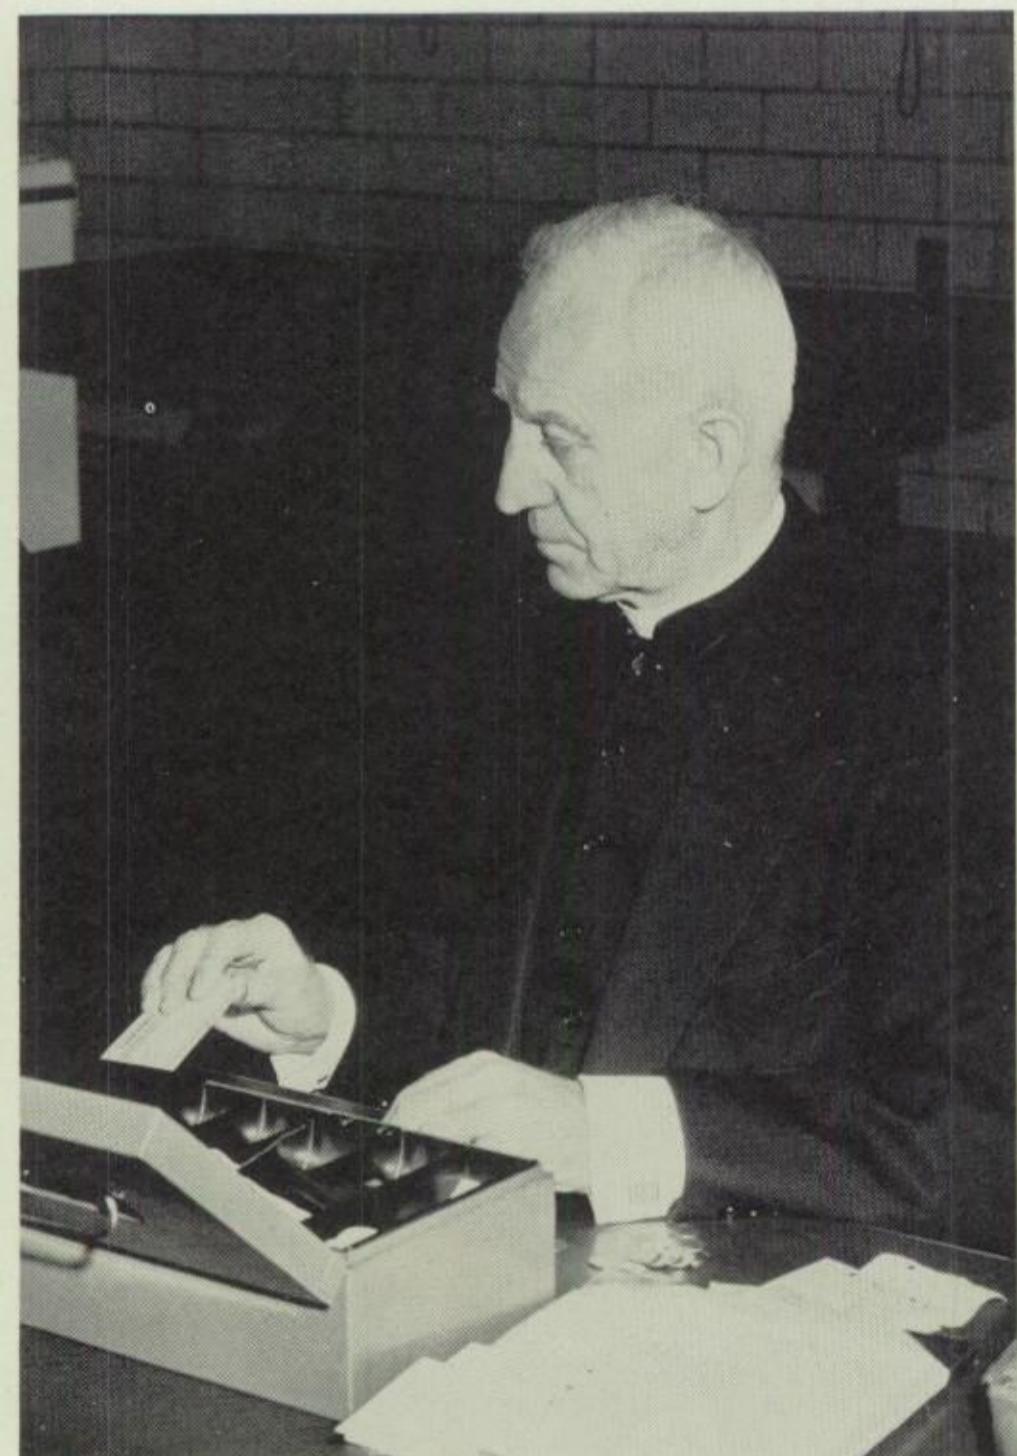

BROTHER ADELARD, SC.

The crown of consummate wisdom in administering school finances sits on the venerable treasurer's white hairs. He directs the school cafeteria with the same tireless energy that made him "The Father of Rhode Island Schoolboy Hockey."

BROTHER HUGHES, SC.

School maintenance head and general factotum, he establishes excellent physical plant standards. A skilled hand and adept worker, he is an invaluable aide to the athletic and cafeteria departments.

The cafeteria's astute "Monday morning's Quarterback"—Brother Adelard, SC—directs ticket sales at the Landmark for Hungry Crusaders.

With knowledge and skill from long years as school custodian, Brother Hughes, SC, adjusts a heating unit connection before those long, cold winter days.

THE JANITORIAL STAFF

MR. RENE ROY

The school's "Mr. Clean" maintains the desired neatness characteristic of a fine education plant.

MR. ARTHUR CROTEAU

Continued service done quietly but efficiently has been the quality of his work throughout the school year.

Preparing their stock in trade—oil mop and waste mobile—custodians Rene Roy and Arthur Croteau launch Operation Cleanup after school hours.

THE CAFETERIA STAFF

MRS. WILLIAM FOHY

As assistant cafeteria lady, she delights the faculty and students with her courtesy and generous helpings.

MRS. WILLIAM McNEILL

ND's dietician ranks among the best. Nutritious meals and a sparkling kitchen testify her skill and devotedness.

MRS. IRENE CATALETA

Crusaders marvel at the efficiency and cleanliness of her cafeteria ware.

Cafeteria ladies—Mrs. William McNeill, dietician, Mrs. William Fohy, assistant, and Mrs. Irene Cateleta, helper—deploy their culinary skill over the noon meal.

FRESHMEN

Education is like a symphony whose musical range and power makes the listener vibrant with creative energy and wonderment. The first nighters—thrilled with the swirl of the crowd, the majesty of the hall, the hushed expectancy of the first melodious sound—are the freshmen.

Alert, wide-eyed, and straining to hear, the novices, awed by the vast stage assemblage of instruments, hear the exposition of the first simple rhythms, which begin to rise like the dawn of a new intellectual day. Mind and matter in their suppliant natures attune themselves and prepare to soar to realms of enchantment under the maestro's sway.

SOPHOMORES

The early, tripping notes of the symphonic movement of education begin to soar to middling height. There is contrast in rhythm and mood from the opening performance, but nonetheless a unity of tonality, sentiment, and style where Sophomoric depth replaces Freshman strangeness.

Like the quickly-burgeoning life of Sigmund Romberg's "Grand Canyon Suite," the whole panorama of intelligible creation bursts forth in a wonderful score of power and wisdom. The student sits rapt at attention, marshalling the faculties of his heart, spirit, and mind to follow the discursive path of the conductor's wonderfully-evocative baton.

SENIORS

The stately symphonic movement which has gathered its full musical force through the gamuts of wind and stringed sounds approaches the moment of its demise. Likewise the seniors, having reached the pinnacle of the high school educational program through the meandering but rich currents of wisdom and knowledge, must abandon this familiar but imperfect movement to seek the mightier harmonies of collegiate lore.

As graduates of Notre Dame High School the Crusaders will now harmonize their voice and attune their energies to the great humanitarian movements of peace on earth and good will to all men.

P. Renda explains Dalton's theory on atomic energy to R. Leger and E. LeClair.

T. Shaw, R. Allard and J. O'Neil are amazed at the marks Brother George Ernest has given for the weekly quiz.

K. Moison takes great pride in explaining the intricacies of modern photography to R. Doucet, A. Wessmiller and J. Devin.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

The Bible, perhaps as no other source does, gives eloquent testimony to the power and facility of music to express the movements of a man's soul in his service to the Almighty. In the Psalms of King David, contrition, sorrow, joy, exaltation, and gratitude are expressed in language of rhythmic beauty and unsurpassed lyricism.

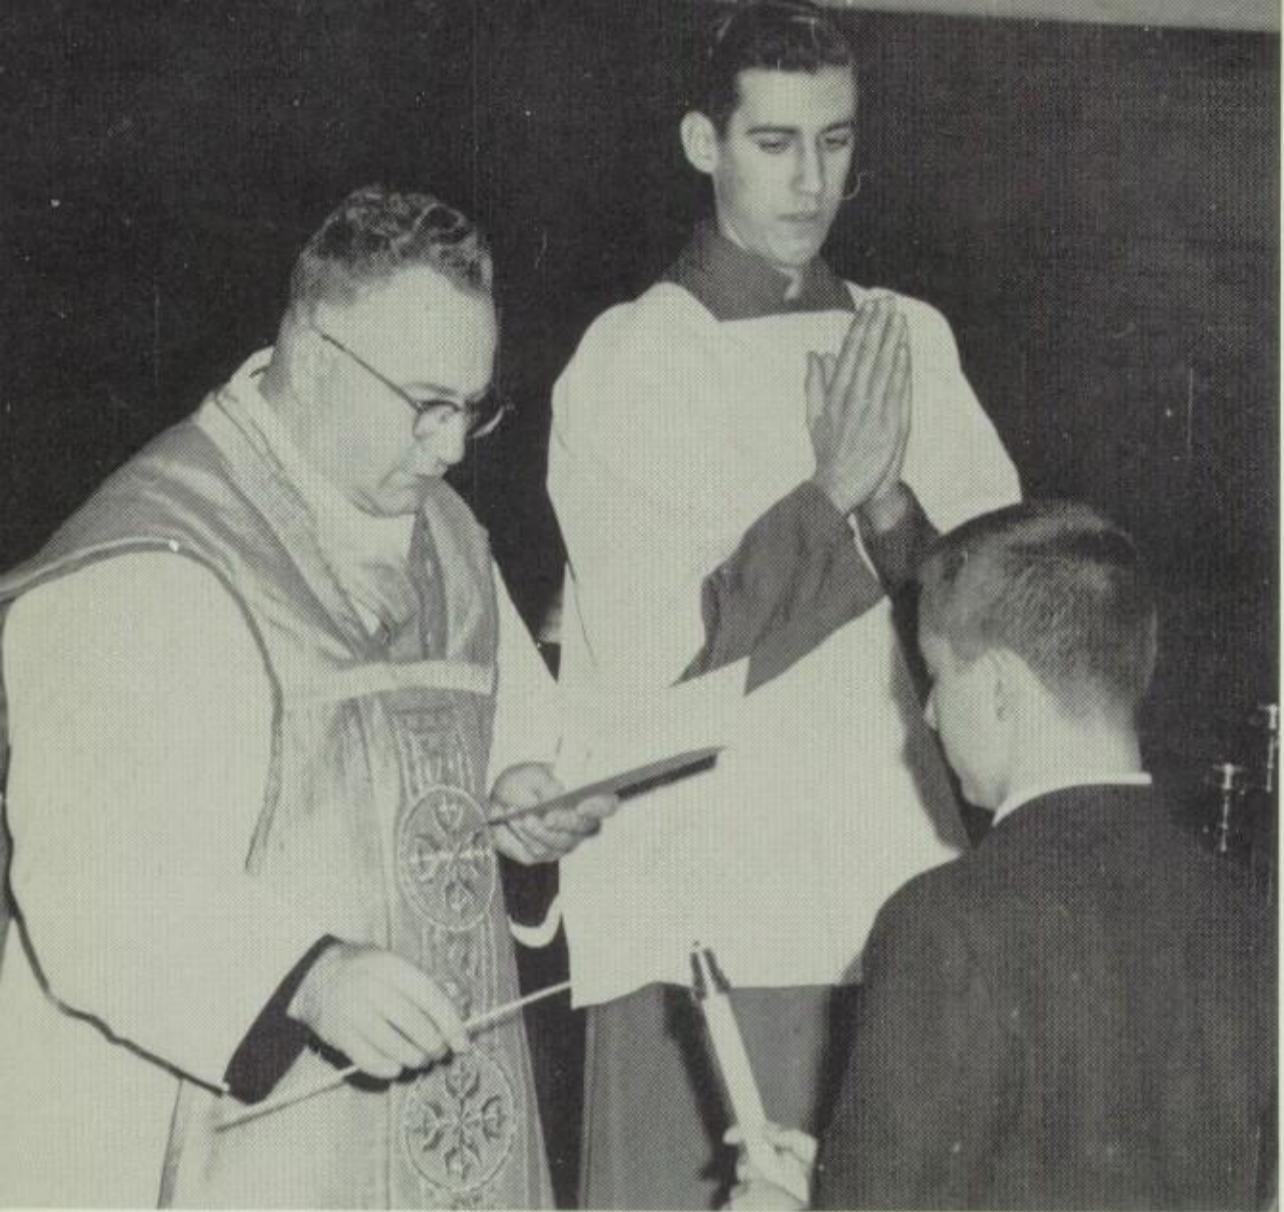

Remembering St. Augustine's enjoinder "that he who sings, prays twice," the Notre Dame student body often fulfills its obeisance to the Almighty "in songs of heartfelt praise" at assemblies, masses, and other holy services.

CATHOLIC YOUTH COUNCIL

This diocesan youth organization promotes the sound principle that youth, properly guided, can be trusted to lead youth. CYC officers are entrusted the all-important roles of aiding and counselling their fellow students in spiritual, cultural, social and physical activities.

Brother Oliver, principal, directed the school's Catholic Youth Council.

Rev. Father Gendreau is assisted by E. Stebbins as P. Ambrosini officially becomes a CYC officer.

R. Cormier, J. A. Guenette, and B. Vaillette add another link in the spiritual chain of the living Rosary.

Mr. John Devlin, coach at St. John's Prep of Worcester, gives enlightening conference on Catholic training in high schools at monthly CYC assembly.

Rev. Father David Beck, Maryknoll father, addresses the student body on the role of a missionary priest in foreign lands.

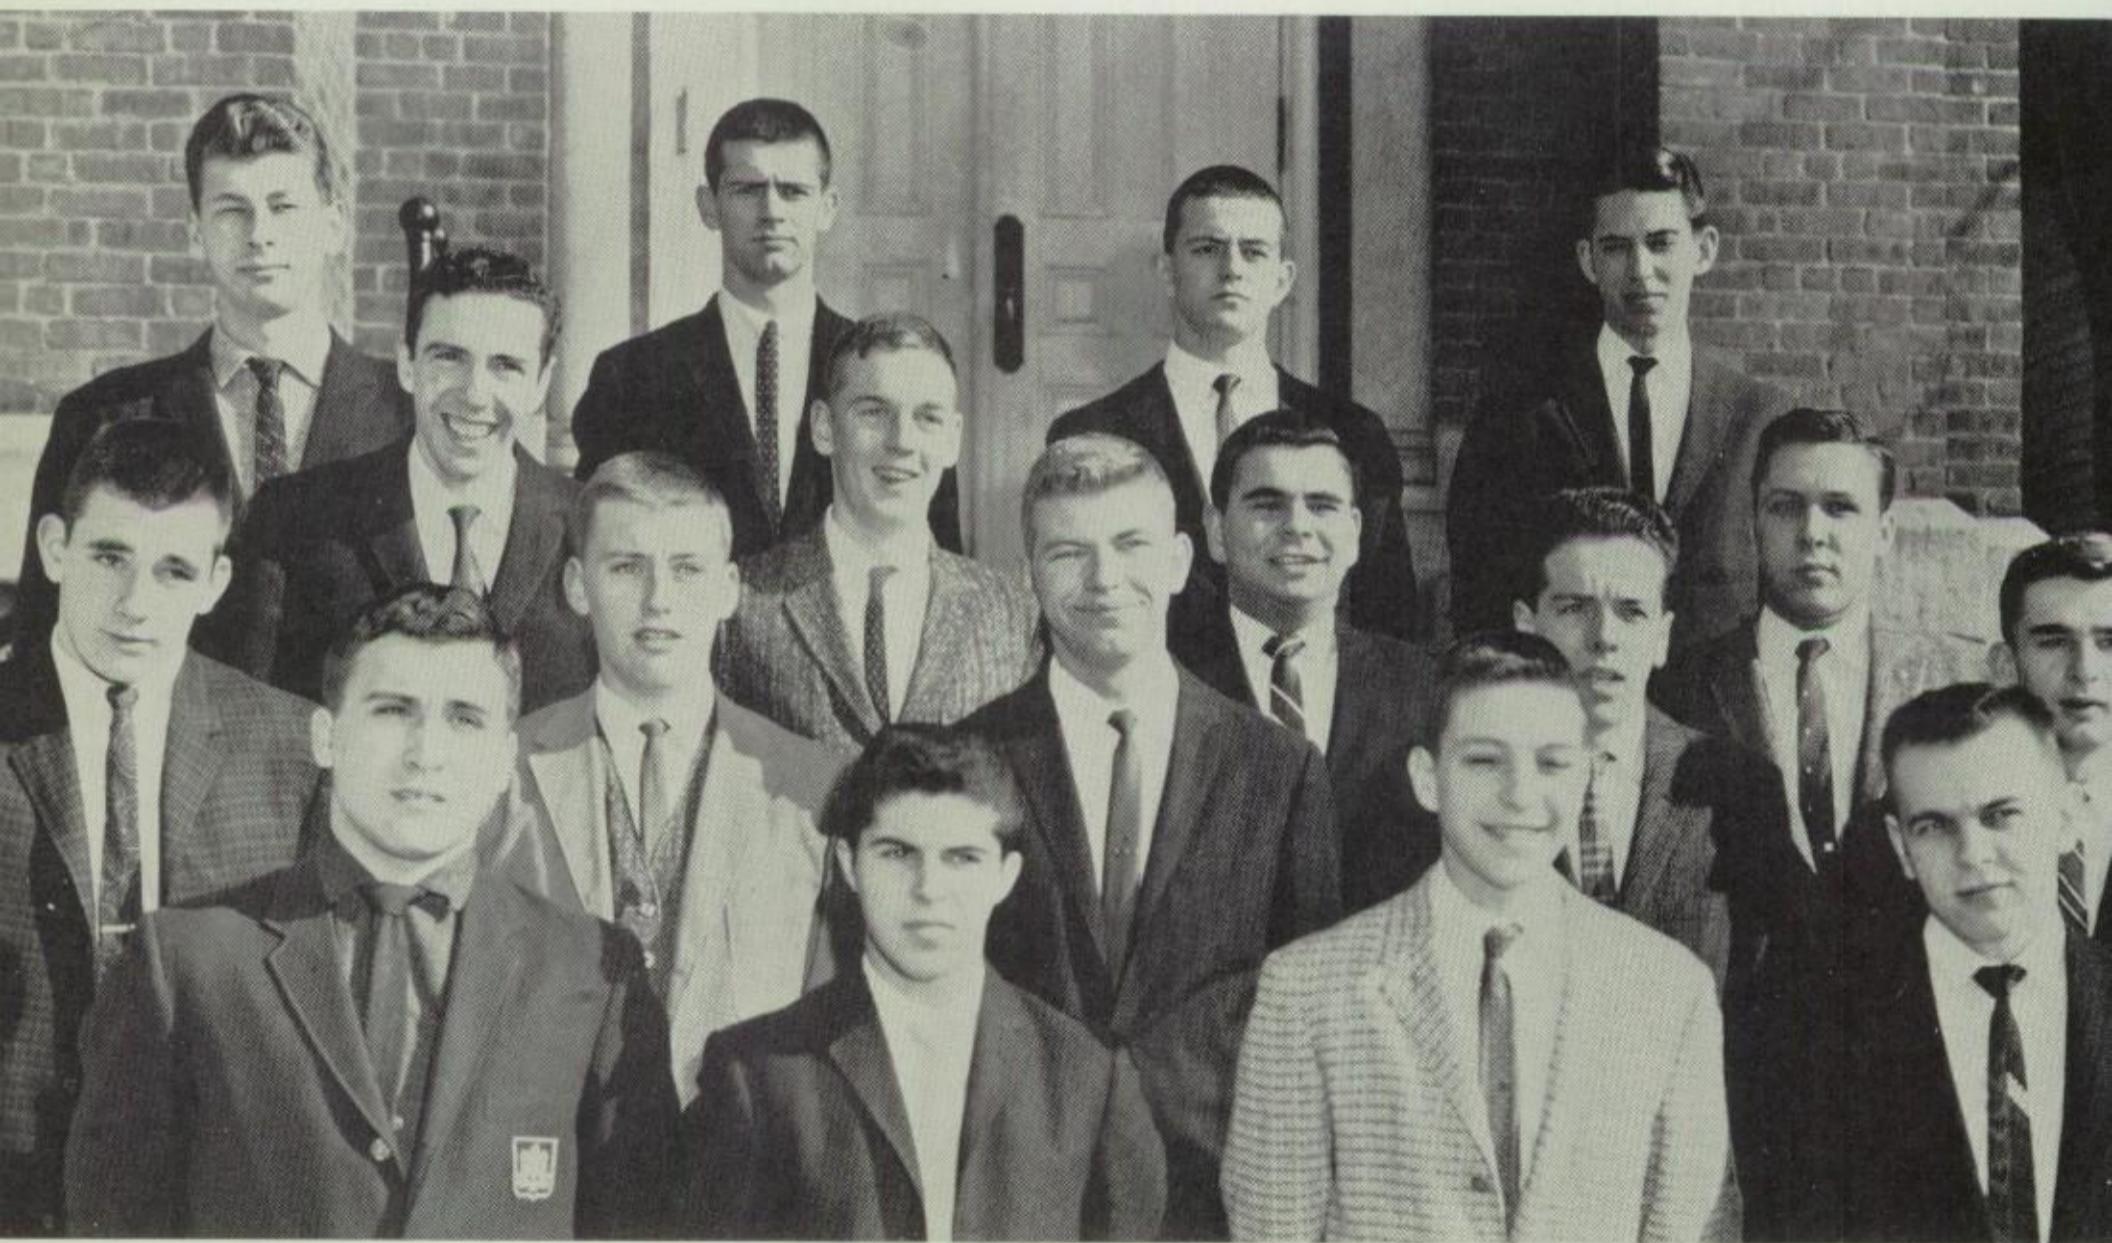

Junior comedians, R. Tata, M. Moran, R. Sawyer, and F. Brideau, present a humorous skit as a highlight of the Christmas assembly.

WEST SPRINGFIELD FOR SENIORS

Rev. Father Walser, CP, blesses R. Secino after hearing the latter's confession.

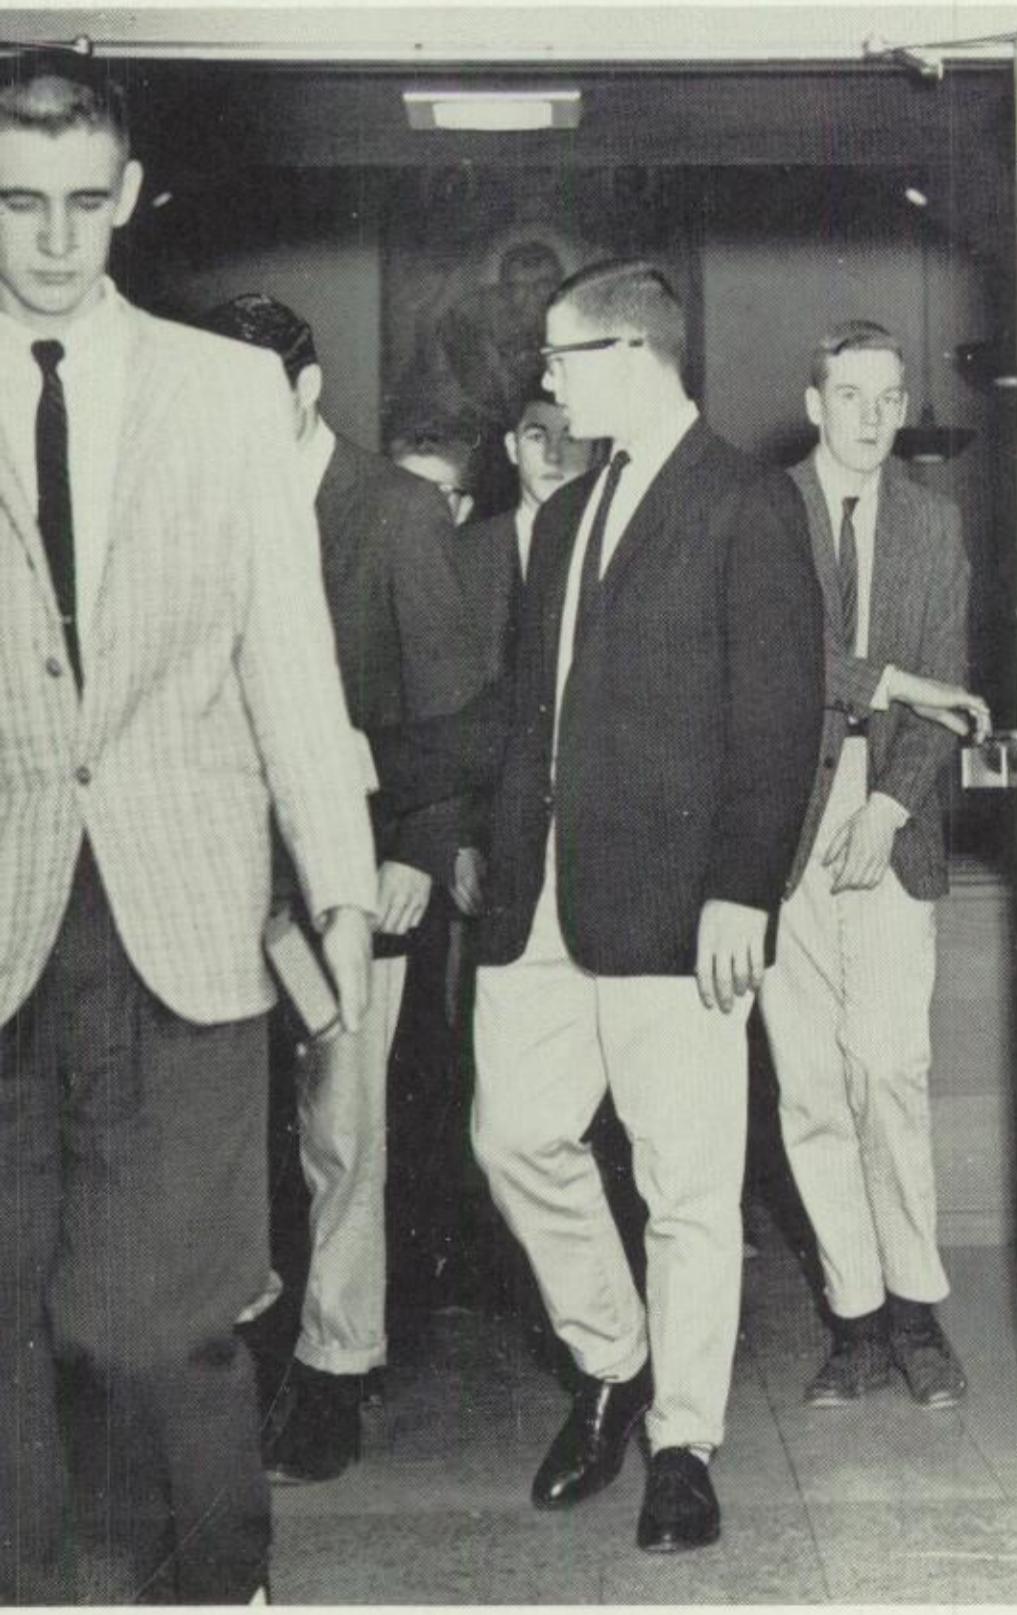

Praying the rosary in the chapel-converted gym are P. Vezina, R. Dau-kantas, J. Friedrich.

The Passionist Fathers directed the annual retreats. The senior retreatants traveled to the Mother of Sorrows Retreat House in West Springfield, Mass., for a closed retreat, while the underclassmen remained at ND.

All Crusaders were afforded ample opportunities for confession and communion during the three days of meditation, discourses, and other spiritual activities. Group activities in chapel included the Way of the Cross, and praying the rosary.

Father Bertrand, retreat master, chats with P. Barth concerning his recent publication His Cross in Your Life.

Retreatants J. Thibodeau, D. Vergari, D. Barnicle, and M. Conlon leave chapel after an inspiring discourse.

L. LaPlume, P. Babeau, and G. Robichaud take a stroll around the campus of Mother of Sorrows Retreat House in West Springfield, Mass.

Since mankind's earliest infant steps towards cultured living, progress in the fine arts, especially in painting and music, has been a measure of man's understanding and penetration into the world of ideas.

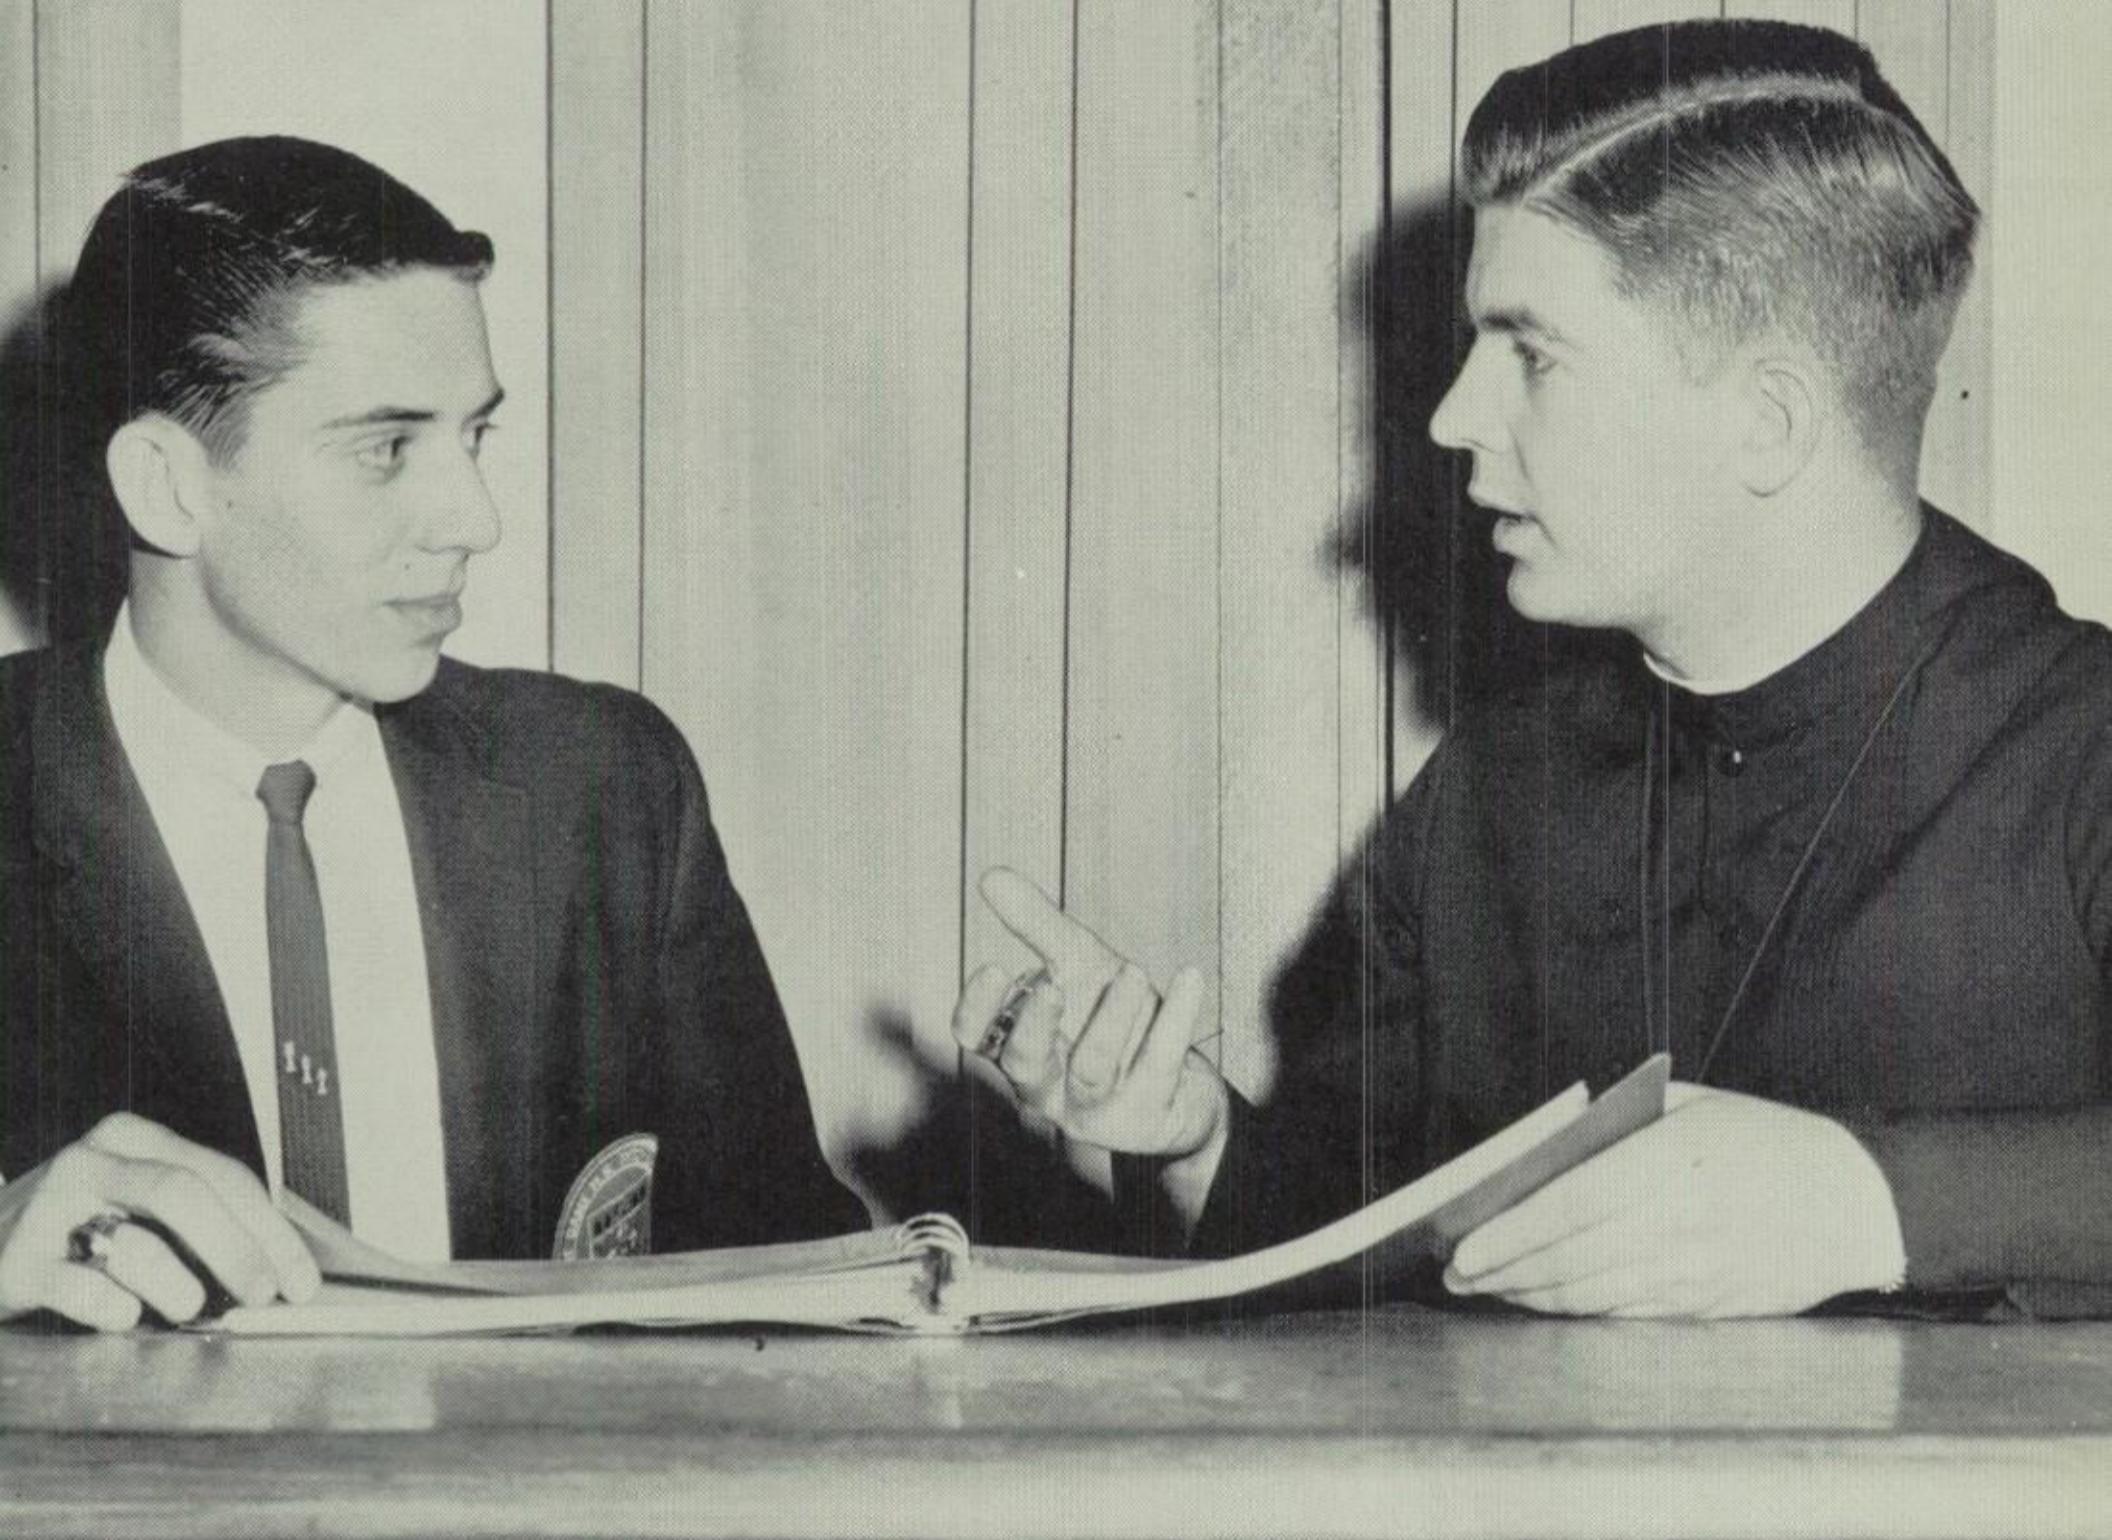

As is universally noticed in the history of civilization in their literature and in their music, they progressed from simple lyricism to work of epic dimensions in an effort to express more fully the complex notions of man's increasing mastery over creation.

In the scholastic program of the students' music is also a precious adjunct and the glee club voices eloquently the feelings of the student body in many cultural activities.

Not satisfied with resting on the laurels of last year's production which garnered the All-Catholic and Medalist Awards from the Catholic and Columbia Press Associations, respectively, this year's Crusader staff, using "THE SOUND OF MUSIC" as theme, materialized their goal of publishing a yearbook with a fresh approach and artistic beauty. Brother Bernard, faculty advisor-photographer, and J. Andre Guenette, Jr., editor-in-chief, directed the destinies of the senior publication. The success of the '61 Crusader was in a large part due to the cooperation of Brother Alphonse and Brother Alban with the literary staff, Brother Augustine with the student artists, and Brother George-Ernest with John Kendra on the finances.

Gathered are the yearbook's best ad sellers Robert Thibodeau and J. Andre Guenette who find the antics of John Kendra, business manager, very humorous. Also pictured are Robert Roy and Alan Raymond in search of forgotten patrons.

PREP LIFE

Brother Alphonse, Prep Life moderator, exchanges an amusing anecdote with co-editors-in-chief P. Ambrosini and M. Conlon of the feature and news staffs, respectively.

Sports editor R. Letarte knocks off another behind-the-scenes 'Crusader Chatter' column for his avid readers.

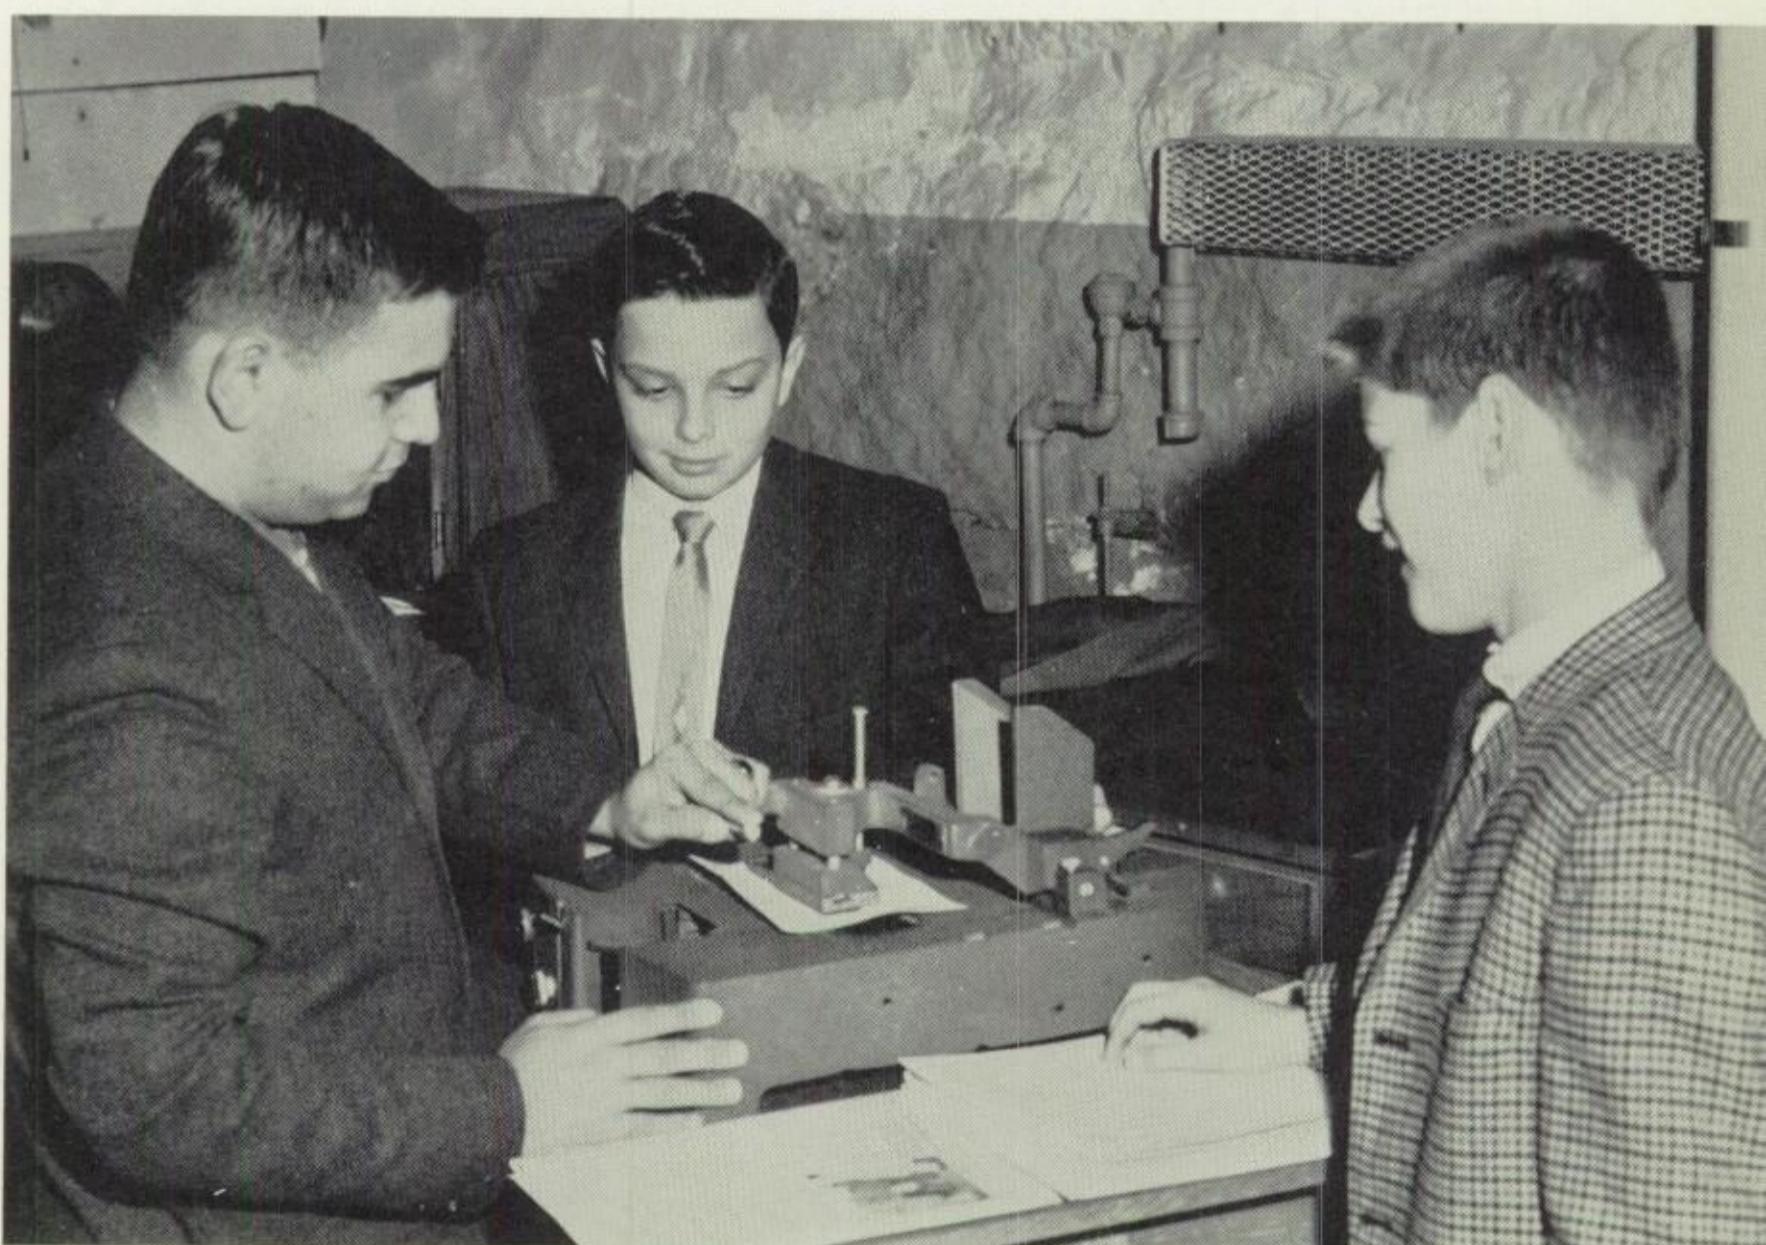

Prep life, now in its seventh year of publication, is the proud possessor of an All-Catholic award from the Catholic Rating Service of Milwaukee, which praised the paper for its complete, factual reporting and readers' appeal.

Under the co-editorship of P. Ambrosini and M. Conlon, the 1961 staff, comprised of more than 40 reporters, dedicated themselves to the primary task of school journalism: to record from the teeming mass of scholastic activities those events which are newsworthy and lasting in the historic development of the school.

Highlighting the more than 50 pages of newsprint was the return to color for the special fourteen-page Christmas issue, and the "Case Studies of School Subjects," which the rating service praised as "an intellectual, original 'first' in school journalism." Brother Alphonse was moderator and Brothers Nicholas and Ignatius, assistants.

Assignment day for the press boys and feature chief P. Ambrosini, left, explains the ingredients of a good article to J. Currier, M. Rivard, R. Piccolomini, E. Stebbins, K. Malone, M. Seymour, R. Mailloux, R. Gariepy, T. Shaughnessy, and L. Caron, seated.

Senior business manager J. DiPietro shows frosh assistants R. Murray and M. Babin the 'how-to' of the press room's addressograph.

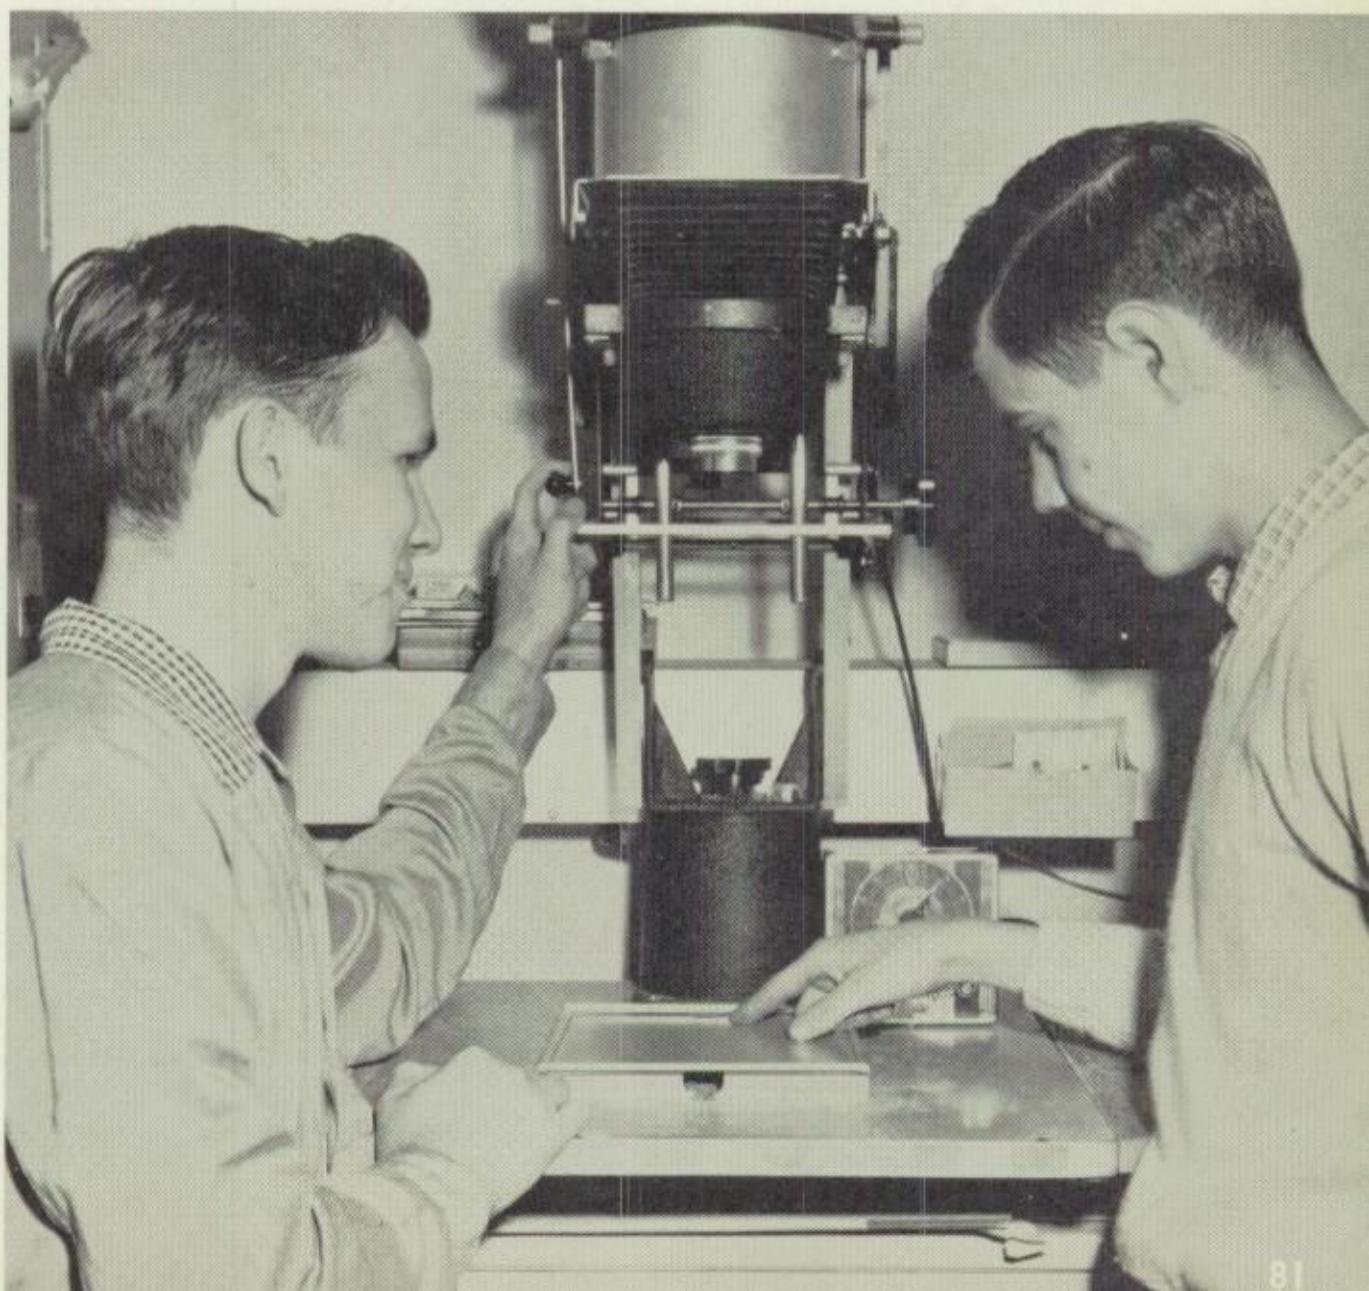

In hot stove league fashion the local sports scribes hold a chowder about a controversial hoop win over the Red and Gray. N. Nano, seated, holds the interest of R. Daukantas, J. Mercier, D. Basque, and R. Rossetti, while at the far left E. McIntyre engages R. Deschenes and J. Champa.

Brother Nicholas, seated, and Brother Ignatius, journalism assistants, comb the latest issue with a critical eye and a sharp pencil. They teach staff members the intricacies of page-layouts, picture-cropping, and the correction of proofs.

Staff members of the news department engage in lively chatter about the latest leads. Young Fourth Estaters sitting are J. Bowen, D. Duvarney, W. Constantino, and standing, from the left, H. Wheeler, D. O'Connor, N. Houle, R. Nichols, R. Lewis, R. Gastonguay, and W. Fini.

Kenneth Moison and Robert Roy, official student photographers, whose shots have appeared in Prep Life and the Crusader for three years, bring another print into focus.

DEBATE

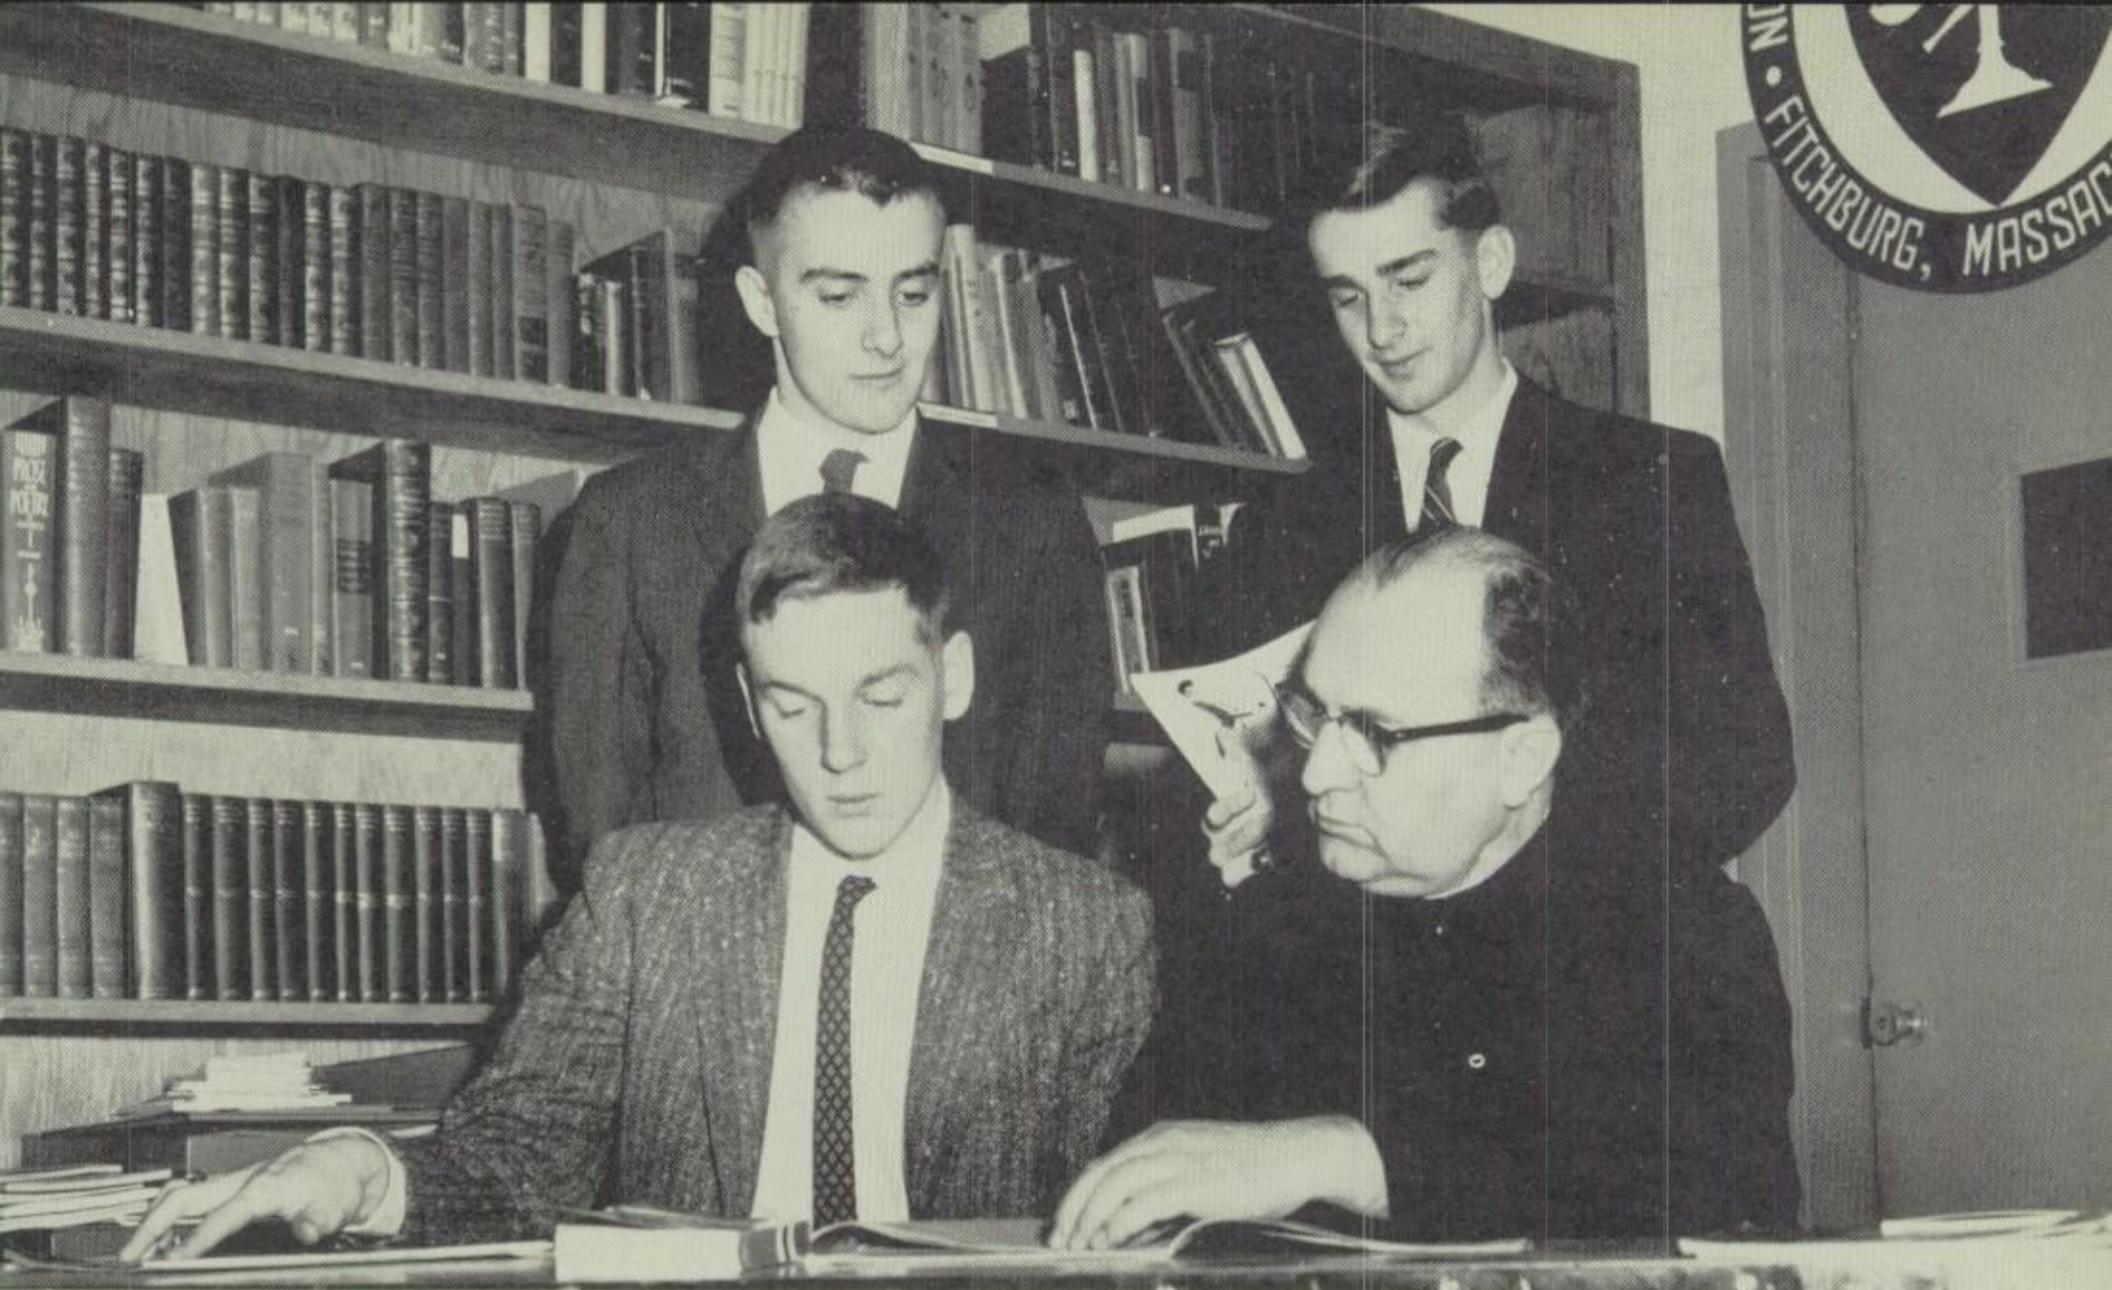

Brother Damian, freshman moderator, gives instructions for impending tourney to frosh debaters H. Zufelt, J. Caron, R. Gerow, and C. Gelinas.

DEBATE SOCIETY

The Notre Dame Debating Society is one of the 850 secondary schools comprising the National Forensic League. Speech is one of the Creator's greatest gifts to mankind and it is no small wonder therefore that the League's purpose is to encourage and sponsor debating and speech activities throughout the nation. After receiving a charter in 1956, the Notre Dame chapter experienced a phenomenal growth which placed it as the second largest team in the New England district earning over 4,000 points on the national point system. Brother Armand directed the varsity, and Brother Damian, the junior varsity and freshman squads. Officers of the club were President, M. Conlon, Vice President, P. Ambrosini, Secretary, P. Lambert, and Treasurer, R. Bernard.

Varsity debate coach Brother Armand informs senior debaters R. Bernard, P. Ambrosini, and M. Conlon the details of good team strategy.

GLEE CLUB

The Notre Dame Glee Club with their praiseworthy performances proved once again that music, the universal language of all men, expresses the common thought and emotion of one and all. "Musical Minstrel," the school's sixth annual show, was praised by its director, Brother Giles, as one of the best productions ever. Vocal selections from the Broadway hits "The Sound of Music," "Oklahoma," "Damm Yankee," and "My Fair Lady" entertained 500 music lovers.

Among the special guests attending were some 40 priests, brothers, and sisters from nearby schools, and parishes. The successful "Show Business" was produced by a 70-member supporting cast, comedy endmen, and well-trained vocalist.

Brother Giles especially thanked the devotedness of Brothers Robert and Alban, scenarists, along with John Kendra, senior.

Brother Anthony, accompanist from Nashua Junior High School, N. H., performed brilliantly.

Brother Anthony, former silent movie impresario, nimbly fingers the keyboard to the tune of "There's No Business Like Show Business."

Ronald Bernard, minstrel emcee, entralls audience with his rendition of "Climb Ev'ry Mountain."

DANCE COMMITTEE

Dance committee members P. Foster, D. Walker, R. Desilets and dates talk over the latest records with one of the city's top Dee Jays—D. McLernon.

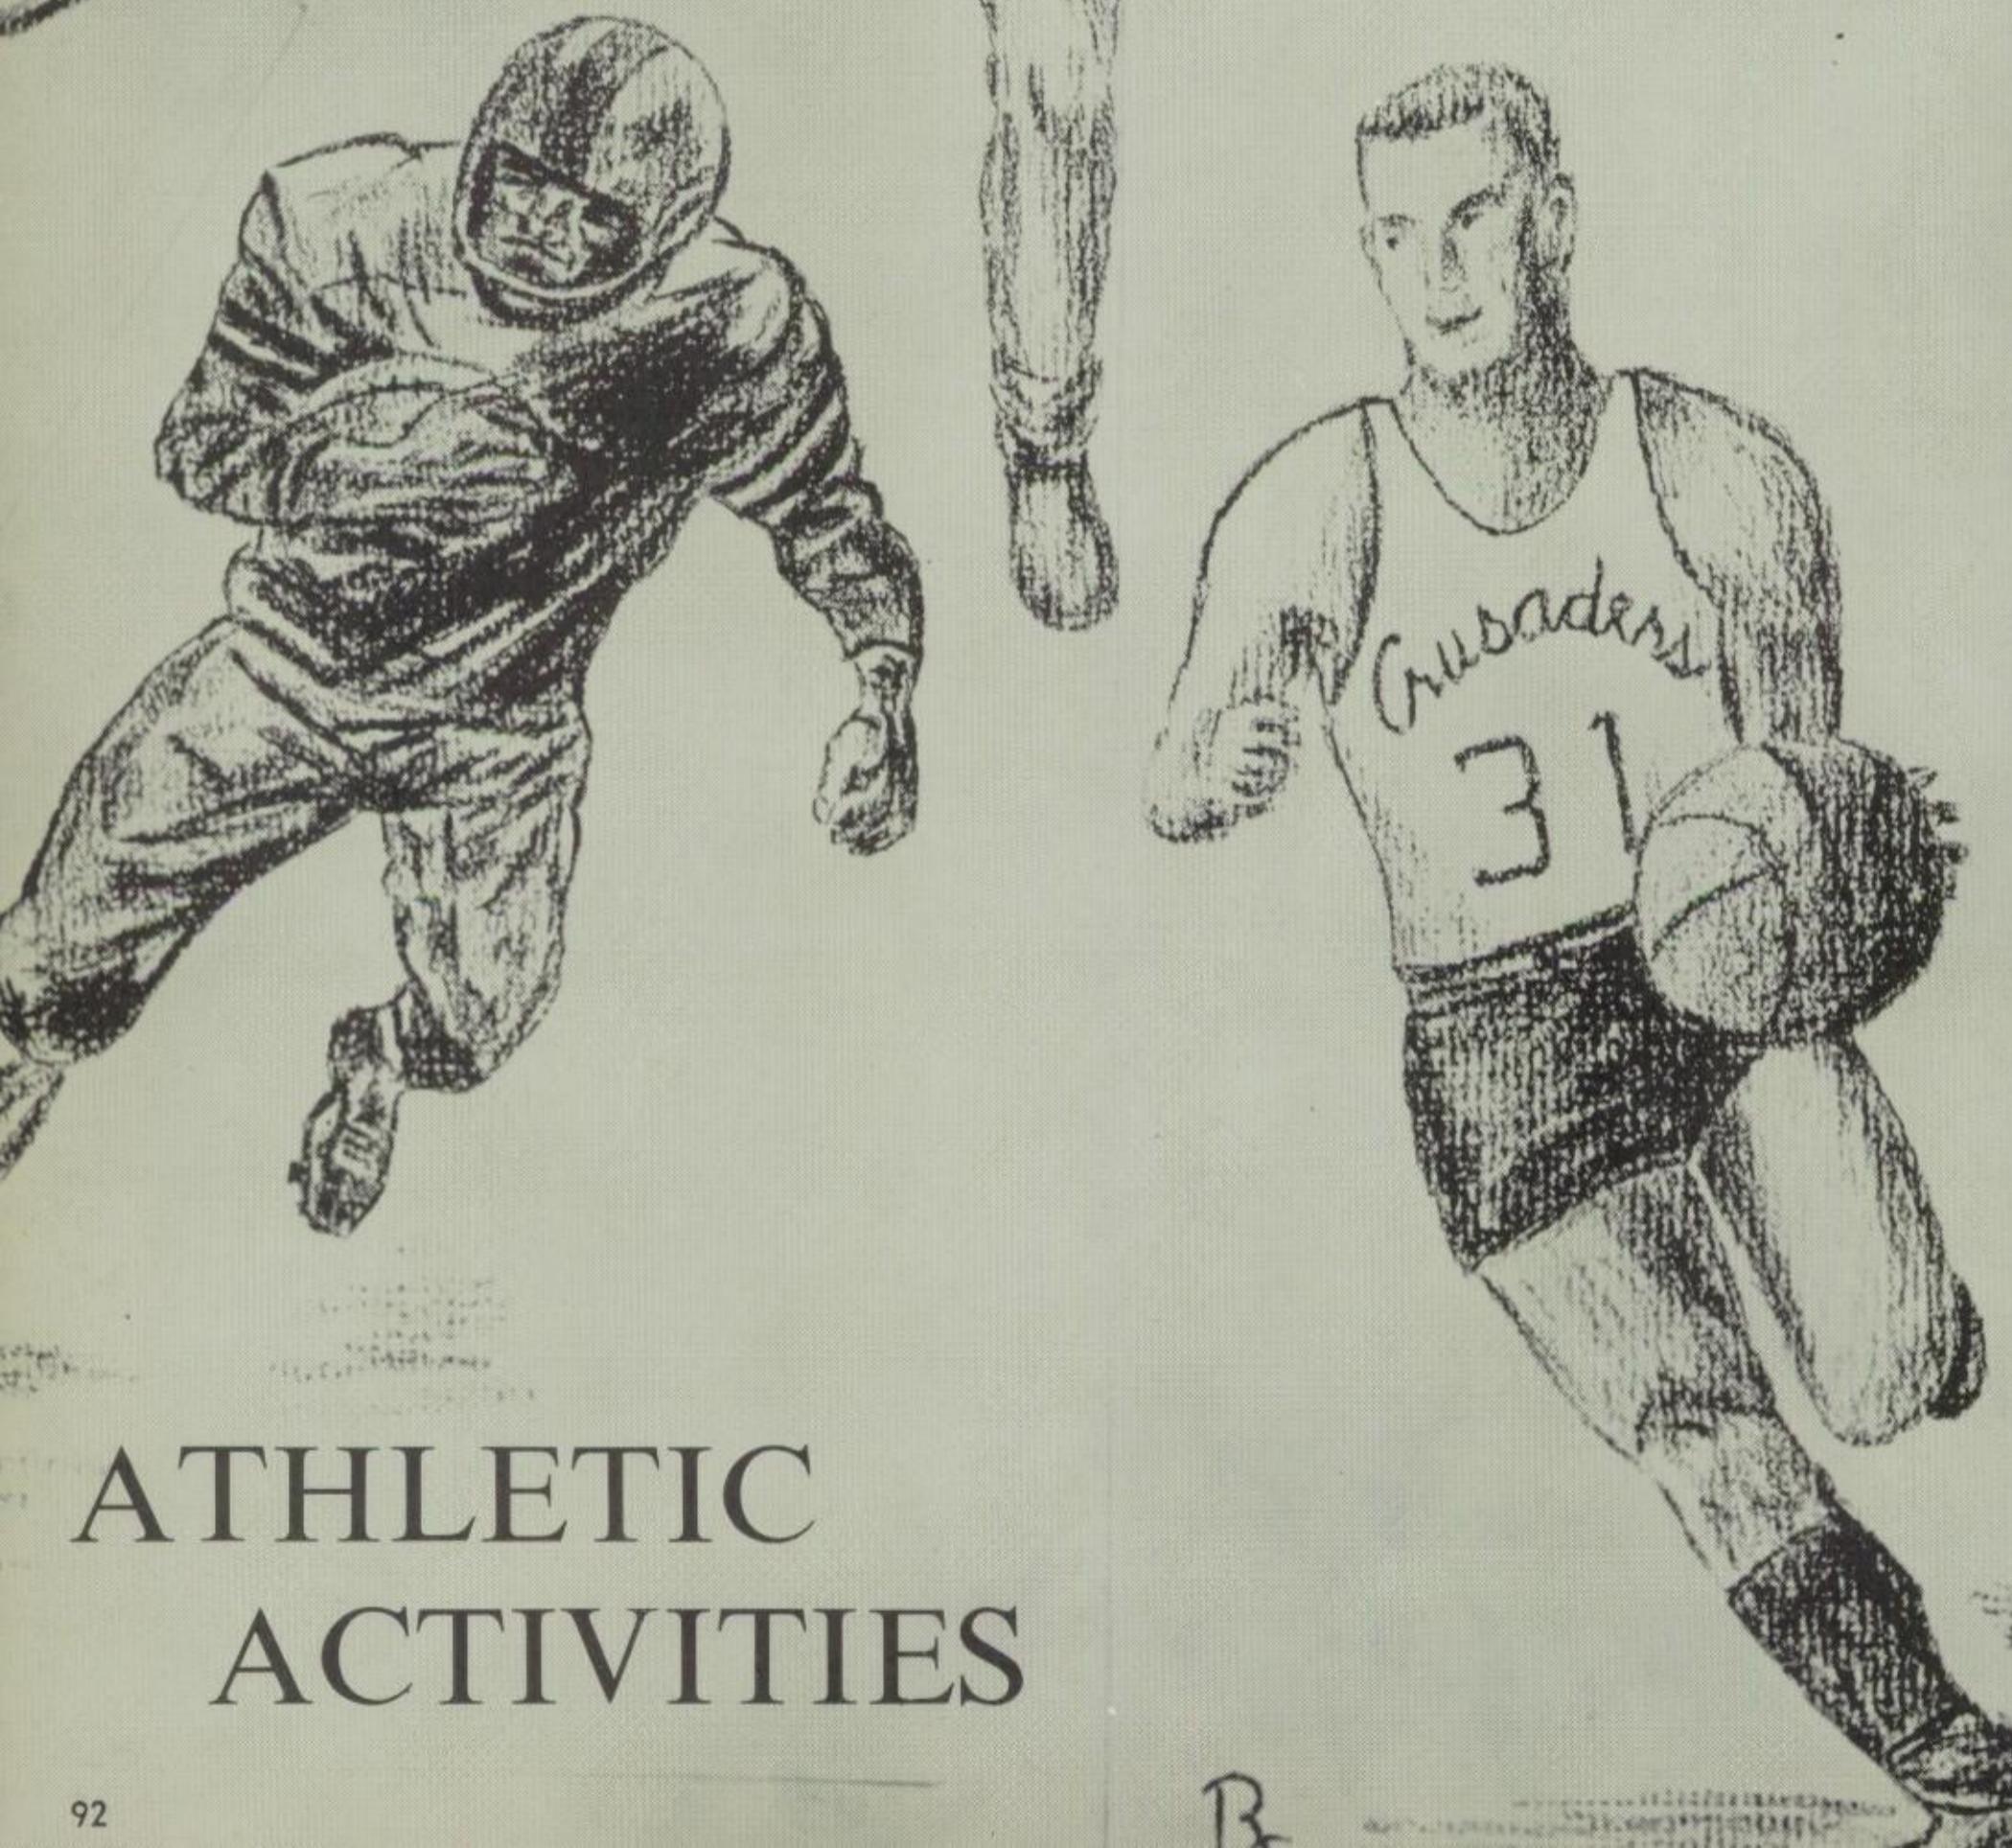

It's quick service from dance committee-men T. O'Horo, M. Moran, D. Duvarney and R. Nichols at the coat-checking counter as J. McGuinness and A. L. Guenette arrive at ND record hop.

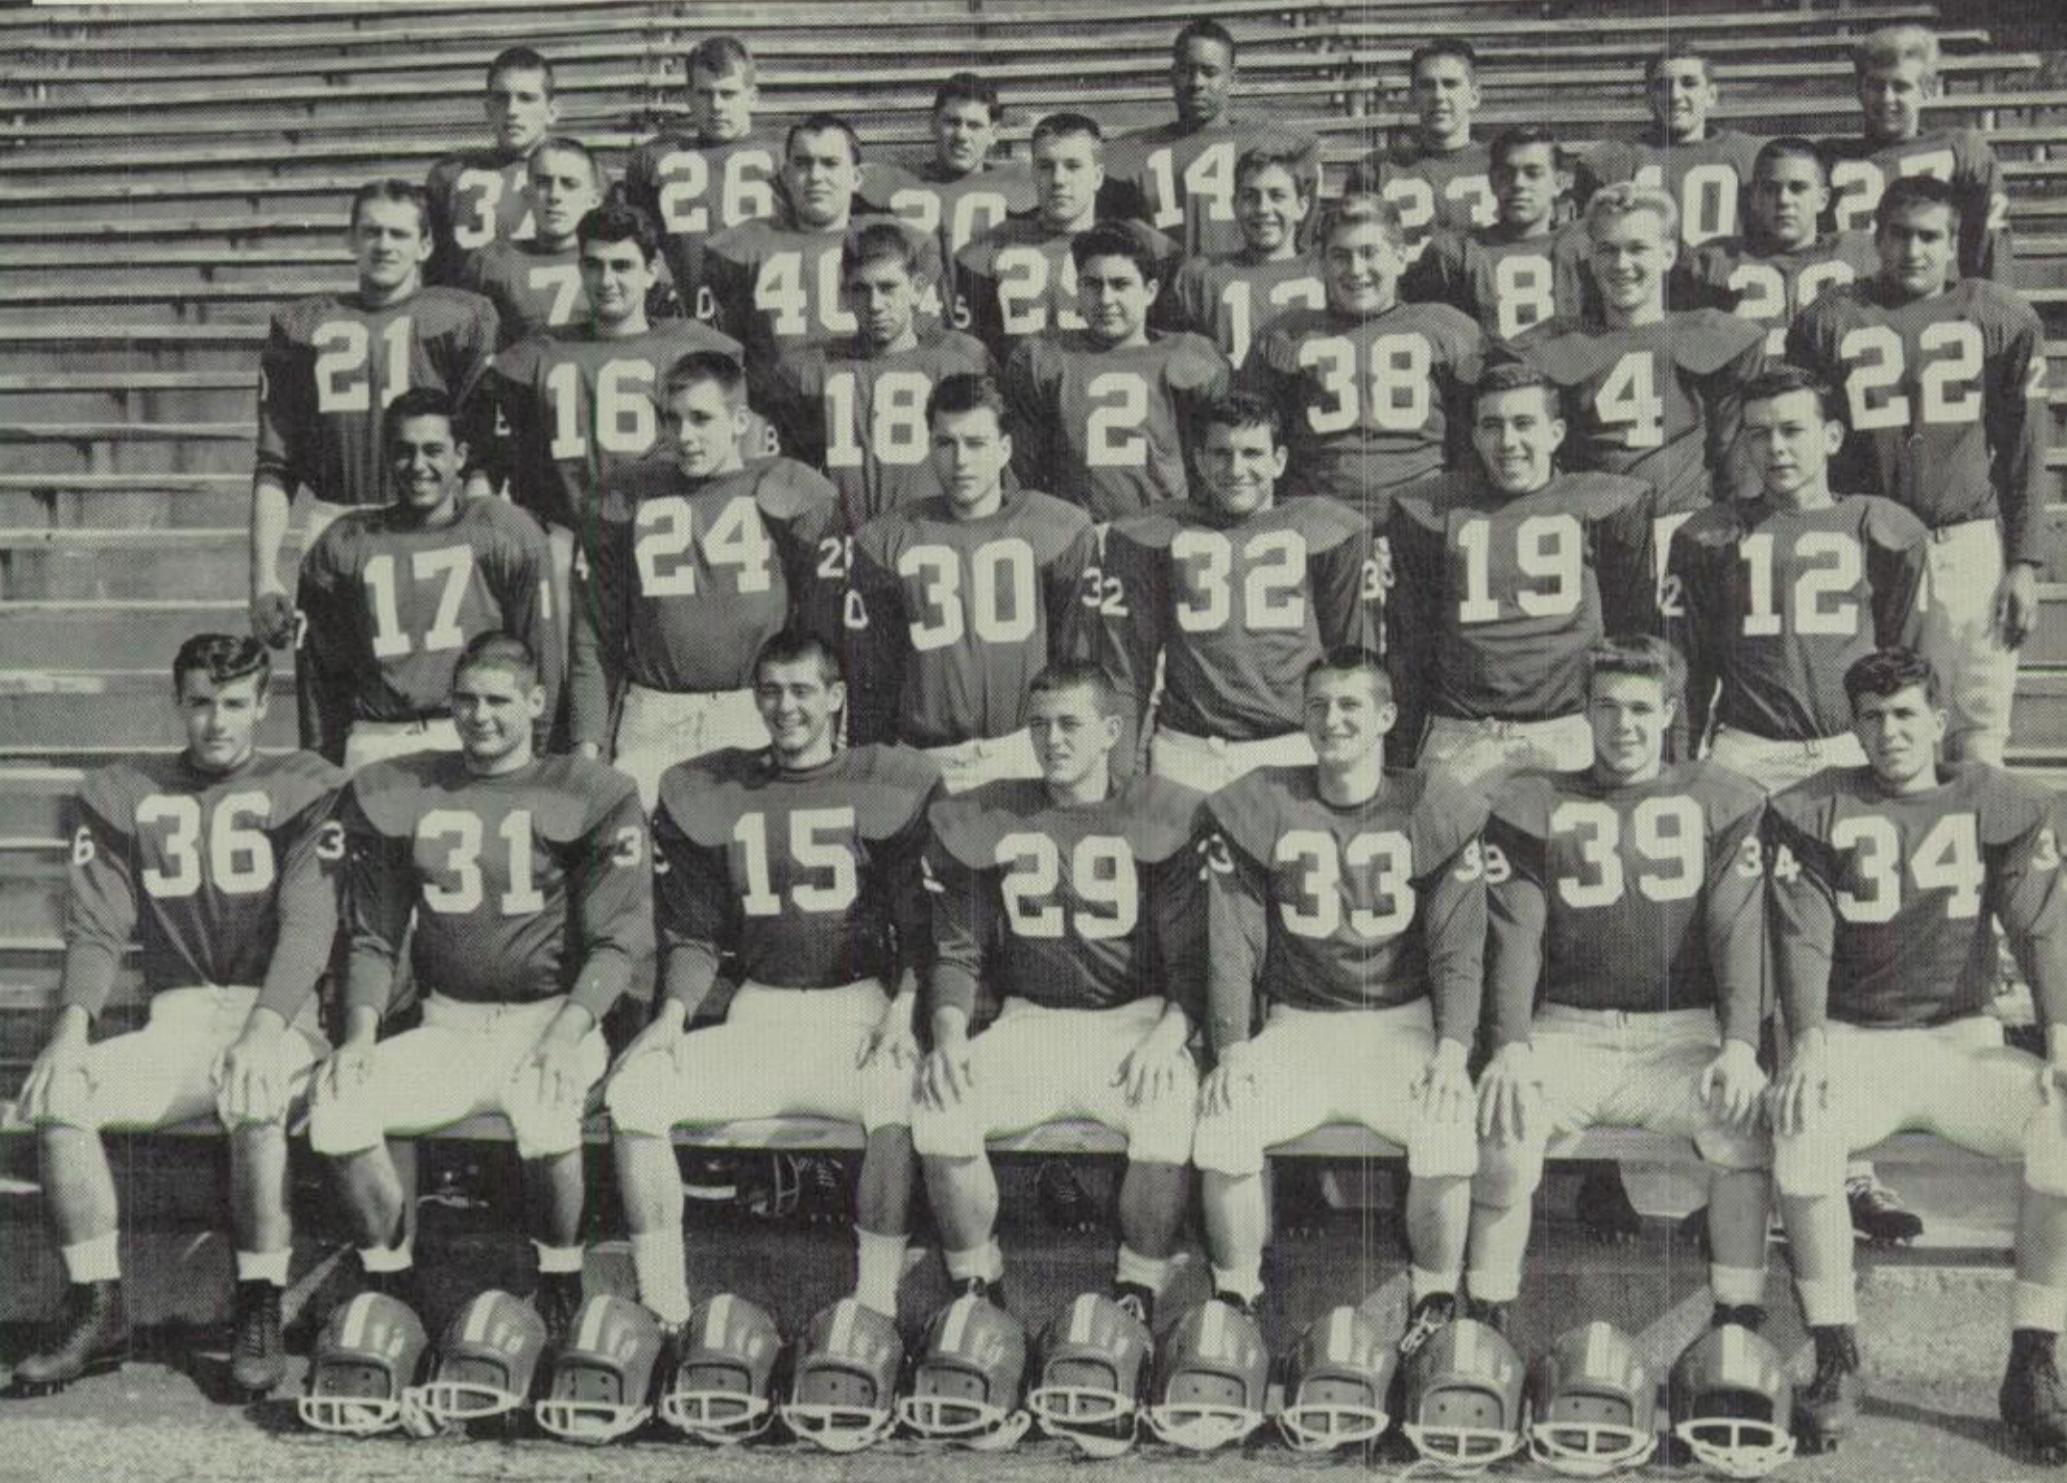

If music has the power to uplift and inspire, it also has the force to rouse and stimulate, as anyone who has heard the stirring "Notre Dame University Fight Song" will attest. What medium of human expression can so poignantly convey the despair of a heartbreaking loss, or ecstatically trumpet the delirium of a victory that almost wasn't or was long coming?

On the field of sports play where the Crusader athlete battles for his Alma Mater, martial or military music helps to arouse in him those emotions which coerce the will and the body into almost superhuman effort.

JUNIOR VARSITY HIGHLIGHTS

Junior varsity coach Dick Robichaud's youthful knights proved themselves as defensive stalwarts by posting a 0-3-2 season.

The Robichaudmen settled for a 6-6 tie with Shirley Industrial when an 80-yard scoring scamper by Wayne Bartoni was nullified. Roger Desilets scored for the knights.

In the Hudson contest Remo Rossi scored on a pass from John Mercier, but the locals could not stop the running and pass catching of Kenny Girouard.

The Southstreeters also played to two scoreless ties against Clinton and Gardner. In both tilts hard line play and excellent booting throttled both offenses and kept the ball at midfield. For the locals Joe Champa, John Mercier, Paul Sontag, Ronald Leger, Paul Foster, and Alex Innomorati played well in both games.

VARSITY SETS A 15-6 SCHOOL RECORD

Under Coach Jerry Belliveau the Crusaders compiled the best hoop record in the school's history. The Southstreeter's impressive 15-6 record is the result of a stubborn defensive, professional accuracy at the foul stripe, and possession ball tactics. The team amassed 1,004 points for a 47.8 average per game while holding their foes to 903 points and 43 points per game.

JUNIOR VARSITY CLAIMS COUNTY TITLE WITH 18 STRAIGHT WINS

With Coach Richard (Dick) Mazzafero in his first year at the junior varsity post, the B-hoopmen clinched the mythical County Junior Varsity Championship on the strength of 18 straight wins after an initial loss. The star-studded team tallied 1,038 points for a 54.6 average per game while holding their opponents to 679 points and 35.7 per game.

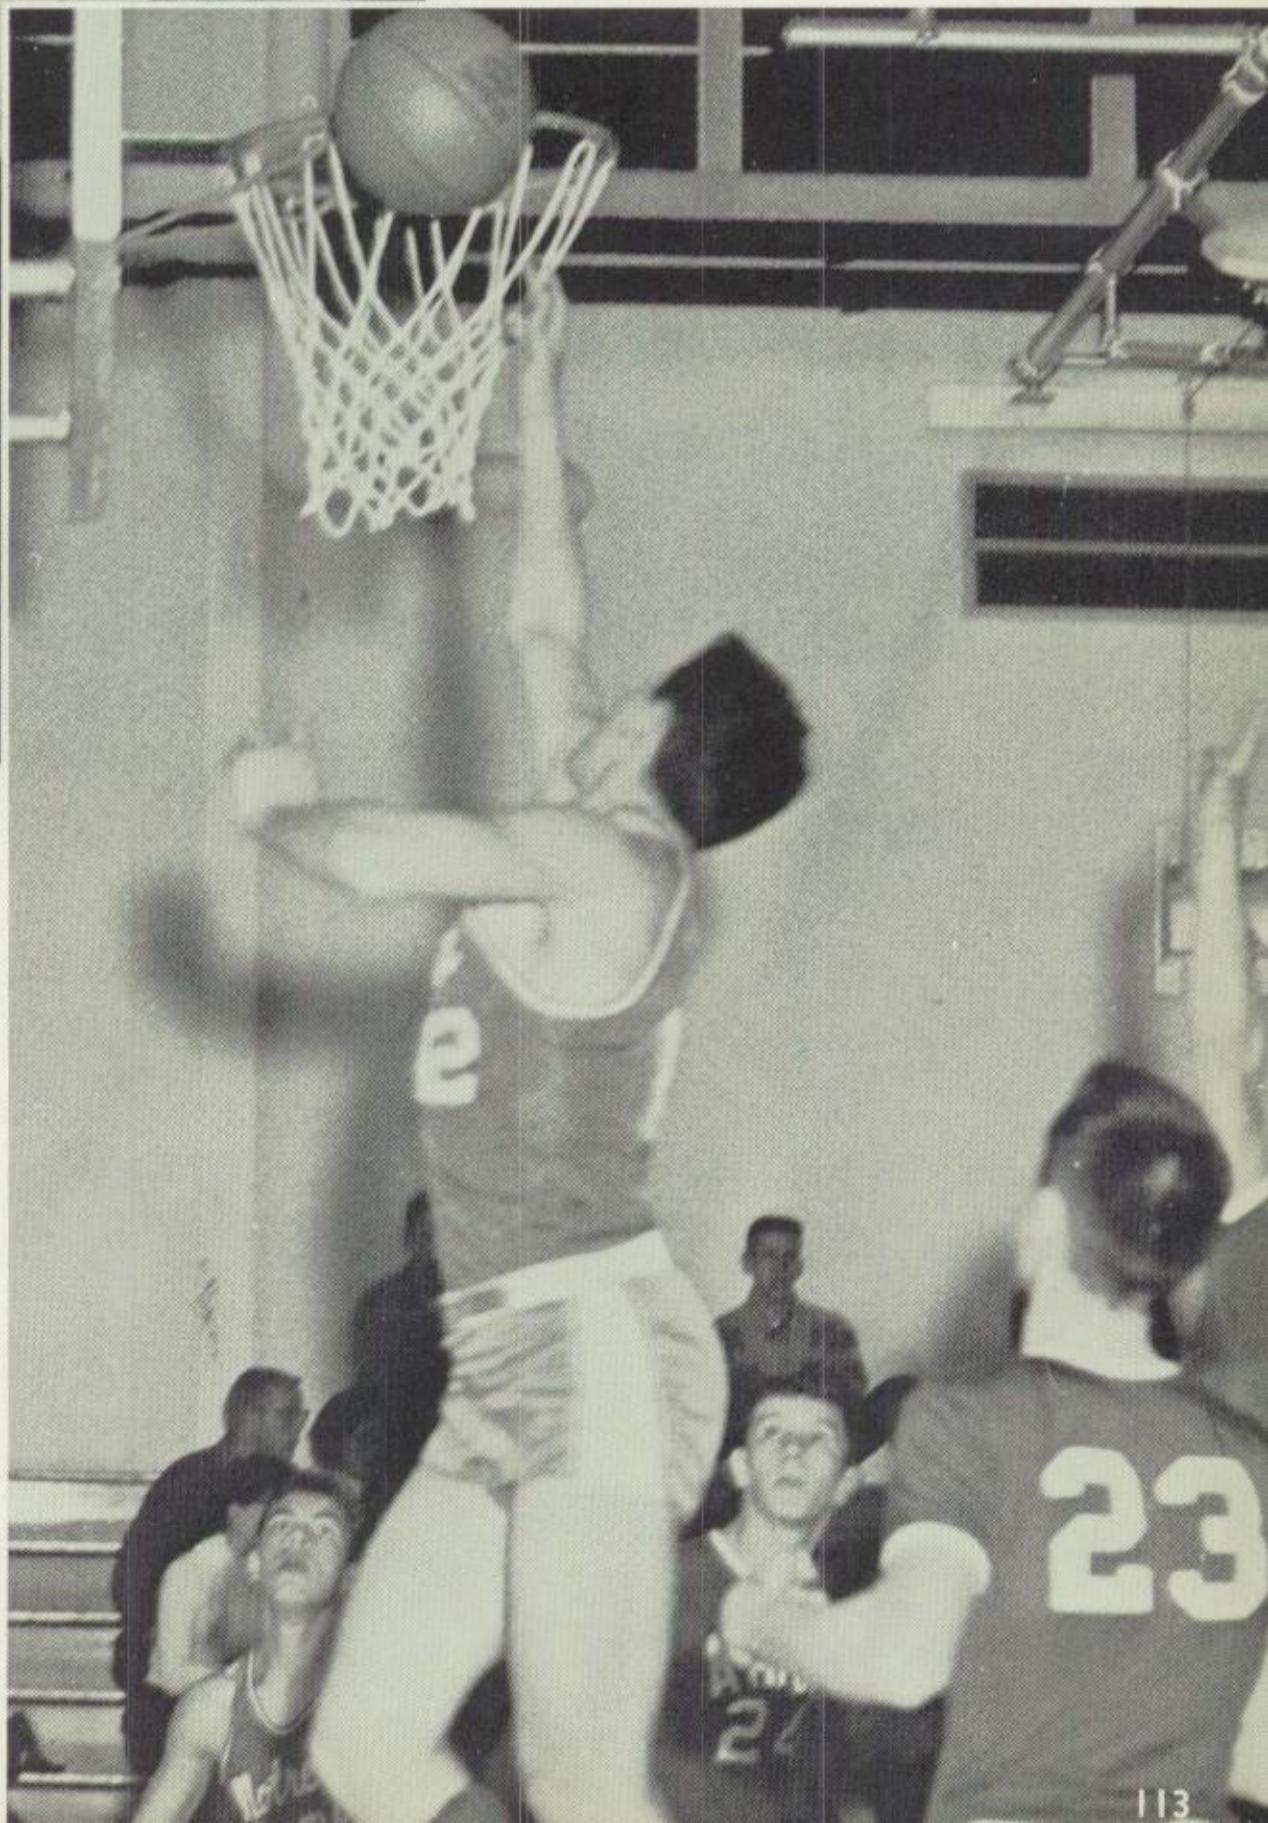

Those making an impressive mark on the hardwood were Norman Collins, Charles DuFort, Paul Foster, Ronald Gallucio (Honorable Mention in the Assumption College Tournament), Joseph Champa, and Darby Walker. Outstanding improvements were noted in floor shooting, rebounding, ball han-

GRADUATES

It is a happy and thought-provoking coincidence that the musical term "Encore" should embody those ideas in its own field which we also ascribe to the word "Commencement" at the end of the high school term. Both words cry for the repetition of something nobly expressed that bears hearing or starting over again. In music, it is the opiate of an enchanting melody which the ear and the heart long to hear again; in education, it is the restatement of those eternal verities which set the mind free and helped its initial ascent to the Source of All Truth.

TAYLOR PUBLISHING COMPANY

"The World's Best Yearbooks Are Taylor-made"
